- 81* England tour of England 1897. Rare, early and fascinating pair of two page handwritten letters from A.E. Stoddart, Middlesex & England Captain for the tour, and Captain Edward G. Wynyard, Hampshire & England regarding selection for the forthcoming tour to Australia. The letters dated 15th and 22nd August 1897. The first letter expresses Stoddart's pleasure at Wynyard's selection for the touring party. 'I was very please to hear that the War Office had given you leave and that you accept the invitation to join the team. I feel certain you will enjoy the tour immensely and I shall be glad to do all in my power to make things happy for you'. Nicely signed A.E. Stoddart. To verso there is further handwritten details of colours to be worn including tie and hat ribbon, tour caps and coats (blazers), berth for the trip 'an inside cabin but very comfortable'. In the second letter, Stoddart goes out of his way to commiserate with Wynyard on his not being able to go on the tour due to the War Office cancelling his leave. 'I cannot tell you how sincerely sorry I am to get the news of the War Office cancelling your leave. I was really looking forward with the greatest pleasure to having you with us and can only tell you that I am almost as disappointed as you are. About the inconvenience caused, please don't let this add to your troubles. I can easily get another man, I had intended to take 14 but I think that if Briggs takes your place that will be enough. I only wanted another good bowler to add to the 13 which appeared in the papers to look a rare(?) side. As my

- object in accepting your invitation with you was only with the view of helping you re the tour, and I am very much busy, I will ask you to excuse me. I shall hope to see you somehow before we leave and in the meantime can only express how sincerely sorry I am, you cannot join us'. Again, very nicely signed in ink by Stoddart. Both letters, ex Wynyard collection. A rare insight into the trials and tribulations of an England Test Captain £1500/2500
- Interesting letters covering some of Stoddart's selection problems with the tour, Wynyard withdrew and Jackson and Attewell declined. Following the success of the team he took to Australia in 1894/95, the authorities in Australia invited him to take a second side out in 1897/98. Heavy criticism was levelled at him prior to the voyage on September 17th, three weeks after the final letter, the first being that 13 players were not enough and the second that the bowling was weak! The tour was best by problems including illness, family bereavement, play cancelled on the first day at Sydney, barracking by the Australian crowds and the problem of 'throwing'*
