The Auctioneer will not be deemed to have received the total sum due until after any cheque delivered by the buyer has been cleared. Excellent and interesting handwritten letter from Freddie Brown to Cyril Washbrook regarding Washbrook's decision to decline his invitation to tour Australia & New Zealand in 1950/51. 'This is just a line to say how sorry I was that you have had to decline the M.C.C. Tour! I don't know if there is any chance of your reconsidering your decision as naturally I am very keen for you to come and so if there is the slightest hope please let me know at once....I realise the difficult decision you had to make only too well, but if there is any chance of you coming, not only myself, but the whole of England will be delighted and your previous experience will be invaluable. We were not able to gather sufficient in coin and stamps and tram tickets and other articles of a commercial value so we made up the balance with a 'wee o u' trusting that later we may be in a position to redeem it. Trusting you will accept our apologies'. Nicely signed in ink by Ransford and Laver. The two page 'Wee o u' and original envelope accompanies the letter and is again signed by Ransford, Laver and fellow Australian cricketer Robert Crockett. A rare and
