Online bidding

Knights Sporting Limited are delighted to offer an online bidding facility at our auctions for bidders who cannot attend the sale. Bid on lots and buy online from anywhere in the world at the click of a mouse with the-saleroom.com's Live Auction service.

Full details of this service can be found at www.the-saleroom.com

In completing the bidder registration on www.the-saleroom.com and providing your credit card details and unless alternative arrangements are agreed with Knights Sporting Limited you authorise Knights Sporting Limited, if they so wish, to charge the credit card given in part or full payment, including all fees, for items successfully purchased in the auction via the-saleroom.com, and confirm that you are authorised to provide these credit card details to Knights Sporting Limited through www.the-saleroom.com and agree that Knights Sporting Limited are entitled to ship the goods to the card holder name and card holder address provided in fulfilment of the sale.

Please note that any lots purchased via the-saleroom.com live auction service will be subject to an additional 3% commission charge + VAT at the rate imposed on the hammer price.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. A buyer's premium of 19% (plus V.A.T. @ 20%) of the hammer price is payable by the buyers of all lots.
2. Cheques to be made payable to 'Knights Sporting Limited'.
3. Knights Sporting Ltd, Registered Office, The Thatched Gallery, The Green, Aldborough, Norwich, Norfolk. NR11 7AA
4. Postage and packing will be charged at current rates for all postal deliveries.
- 4a Postage and packing is subject to V.A.T. at 20%.
5. The seller warrants to the Auctioneer and to the buyer that he is the true owner or is properly authorised to sell the property by the true owner and is able to transfer good and marketable title to the property free from any third party claim.
6. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If during the auction the Auctioneer considers that a dispute has arisen he has absolute authority to settle it or re-offer the lot. The Auctioneer may at his sole discretion determine the advance of bidding or refuse a bid, divide any lot, combine any two or more lots or withdraw any lot without prior notice.
7. The buyer shall pay the price at which a lot is knocked down by the Auctioneer to the buyer (the hammer price) together with a premium of 19% (plus V.A.T. @ 20%) of the hammer price, all of which are hereafter collectively referred to as 'the total sum due'. By making any bid the buyer acknowledges that his attention has been drawn to the fact that on the sale of any lot the Auctioneer will receive from the seller commission at its usual rates in addition to the said premium of 19% (plus V.A.T. @ 20%) and assents to the Auctioneer receiving the said commission.
8. The buyer shall forthwith upon the purchase give in his name and pay to the Auctioneer immediately after the conclusion of the auction the total sum due.
9. If the buyer fails to pay for or take away any lot or lots the Auctioneer as agent for the seller shall be entitled after consultation with the seller to exercise one or other of the following rights:
  - i) Rescind the sale of that or any other lots sold to the buyer who defaults and re-sell the lot or lots whereupon the defaulting buyer shall pay to the Auctioneer any shortfall between the proceeds of that sale after deduction of costs of re-sale and the total sum due. Any surplus shall belong to the seller.
  - ii) Proceed with damages for breach of contract.
10. Ownership of the lot purchased shall not pass to the buyer until he has paid to the Auctioneer the total sum due.
11. The seller shall be entitled to place a reserve on any lot and the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller for any lot on which a reserve has been placed. A seller may not bid on any lot on which a reserve has been placed.
12. All unsold lots will attract a fee per lot of £10.00 + VAT.
- 12a. Where any lot fails to sell, the Auctioneer shall notify the seller accordingly. The seller shall make arrangements either to re-offer the lot for sale or to collect the lot.
13. Any representation or statement by the Auctioneer in any catalogue, brochure or advertisement of forthcoming sales as to authorship, attribution, genuineness, origin, date, age, provenance, condition or estimated selling price is a statement of opinion only. Every person interested should exercise and rely on his own judgement as to such matters and neither the Auctioneer nor his servants or agents are responsible for the correctness of such opinions. No warranty whatsoever is given by the Auctioneer or the seller in respect of any lot and any express or implied warranties are hereby excluded.
14. Notwithstanding any other terms of these conditions, if within fourteen days of the sale the Auctioneer has received from the buyer of any lot notice in writing that in his view the lot is a deliberate forgery and within fourteen days after such notification the buyer returns the same to the Auctioneer in the same condition as at the time of the sale and satisfies the Auctioneer that considered in the light of the entry in the catalogue the lot is a deliberate forgery then the sale of the lot will be rescinded and the purchase price of the same refunded. 'A deliberate forgery' means a lot made with intent to deceive.
15. A buyer's claim under the above condition shall be limited to the amount paid to the Auctioneer for the lot and for the purpose of this condition the buyer shall be the person to whom the original invoice was made out by the Auctioneer.
16. Lots may be removed during the sale after full settlement.
17. All goods delivered to the Auctioneer's premises will be deemed to be delivered for sale by auction unless otherwise stated in writing and will be catalogued and sold at the Auctioneer's discretion and accepted by the Auctioneer subject to all these conditions. By delivering the goods to the Auctioneer for inclusion in his auction sales each seller acknowledges that he/she accepts and agrees to all the conditions.
18. The Auctioneer shall remit the proceeds of the sale to the seller no later than forty days after the day of the auction provided that the Auctioneer has received the total sum due from the buyer. In all other cases the Auctioneer will remit the proceeds of sale to the seller within seven days of the receipt by the Auctioneer of the total sum due. The Auctioneer will not be deemed to have received the total sum due until after any cheque delivered by the buyer has been cleared. In the event of the Auctioneer exercising his right to rescind the sale his obligation to the seller hereunder lapses.
19. In the case of the seller withdrawing instructions to the Auctioneer to sell any lot or lots, the Auctioneer may charge a fee of the lot withdrawn and any expenses incurred in respect of the lot or lots.
20. Live telephone bidding
  - i) Live telephone bidding can be arranged (subject to paragraph 20iii) below) by contacting the Auctioneer two days prior to the day of the Auction.
  - ii) Knight's have a mandatory minimum lot estimate of £80.00 on all live calls.
  - iii) The arrangement referred to in paragraph 20i) above will be at the buyer's risk and no guarantee can be given by the Auctioneer that telephone facilities will be available or working on the day of the Auction.
21. These conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English Law.

- CRICKET EPHEMERA
- 305 'The Old Whig (London)'. Early and original 'tabloid' size four page newspaper, with revenue stamp, for the 31st July 1735, published by J. Roberts of Warwick Lane. With lengthy thirty two line report on page four of a 'great Match at Cricket... play'd on Bromley Common in Kent for £1000 (?) between his Highness the Prince of Wales and the Earl of Middlesex, the Londoners playing for the former, and the Kentish men for the latter.' The Kentish team led by the Earl came on to the field at 11.00 am but the Prince did not arrive until 1.00pm, having driven a Chair and Horse himself. The Kentish team led after the first innings by 24 runs (97 to 73). London were all out for 32 in the second innings and the Kentish men won without losing a second-innings wicket. The betting odds fluctuated during the game. After the game the prince attended by a prodigious number of people returned to Lewisham where his coach awaited him. This report was quoted by Waghorn as the source for the match, also repeated by Maun. The newspaper with tape repair to spine, some minor wear to edges otherwise in good condition for its age. A rare item - cricket £100/150

The letter, written in a slightly eccentric style, begins I received your kind letter at my bank in London just before 11.30 yesterday morning and I am hastening to reply. Please excuse pencil but am only a day or two over a bad attack of flu.... the first Air Mail letter I have ever had in my life, yes, indeed, Cricket is the finest game in the world and if only Germany had once understood the game we might have escaped the last war.... I am writing this while eating my lunch, my good friend, Charles has just brought it up for me, and he looks after me top-hole, Flu, you see. I really don't know what happened to my second book. I sold it to a publisher in Birmingham and he paid spot cash, but where is it now?... never mind, I am here in London trying to sell my third book, the best of all. Over 100 true stories, cricket, racing, snooker and at least 10 cases of libel re body-line bowling. 'You will remember at a general Committee meeting that I remonstrated with Major Birkin for resigning from the Appeal Sub-Committee as I considered the Appeal would reach the sum of £6,000. I have now received a note from Captain Brown from which I learn that the gross receipts now total £5,692. 4s. I am, therefore, enclosing you my cheque for £ 3 0 8 herewith to complete the total amount'. Nicely signed in ink 'Julien Cahn'. G/VG - cricket £70/100
Sir Julien Cahn. Businessman, philanthropist and cricket enthusiast. From 1929 to 1939, Cahn was the captain of his own team, the Sir Julien Cahn XI, that toured the world. It was one of the most successful private teams, losing only 19 out of 621 cricket matches.
- 468 Neville Cardus. Three page hand written letter from Cardus to H.W. Timperley with original envelope post marked 2nd August 1929. 'Tomorrow I may find some diversion at the Yorkshire match at Bradford, but I doubt it! Today I heard that "The Summer Game" [written by Cardus] is one of the Book Society's "recommendations" for July. I wish with all my heart it had been "English Scenes and Birds" [written by Timperley].'. He continues by describing his 'return of the old stummick [sic] trouble and this morning I placed myself under a doctor, who talked about the appendix... Personally I think it is too much Lancashire batting'. Nicely signed in ink 'Ever, Neville'. G/VG - cricket £80/120

- Harold Timperley was an English author of local history and topographical studies. Both Timperley's "English Scenes and Birds" and Cardus' "The Summer Game" were first published in 1929*
- 469 Colin Cowdrey. One page hand typed letter from Cowdrey to John Arlott on Barclays International headed paper, dated 24th November 1980, replying to a request to attend a lunch. Signed in ink 'Colin'. G - cricket £25/35
- 470 Hambledon C.C. Bicentenary Dinner, 1964. Two page hand written letter from Edmund Esdaile to Harry Altham dated 17th December 1964 following the dinner given to welcome the M.C.C. to celebrate the Nyren Bicentenary. Esdaile congratulates Altham on his 'masterly' speech, 'it was both a just summary and a vivid evocation; history at its best'. Esdaile continues to discuss the history of the Nyren family, refuting the myth that Nyren's name was from a Jacobite family, to which Esdaile had alerted Altham prior to the event. Esdaile asks Altham 'to wait for The Cricket Quarterly in April' for more details. A most interesting letter about the great Hambledon cricketing family. G - cricket £70/100
- Esdaile went on to publish 'The Nyrens of Eartham and Hambledon. The Facts and a Reconstruction' in 1967, a book which changed significantly much that had originally been believed about the Nyrens and their origins. Harry Altham played for Surrey from 1908 to 1912. He served on the M.C.C. Committee from 1941 until his death in 1965 serving as Treasurer from 1949 until 1963 and President in 1959. He was a member of the Hampshire Committee for over forty years and the President of the club from 1946 until his death. He was also Chairman of the English Test selectors in 1954*
- 471 J.W. Goldman, cricket author and collector. Two page hand written letter written to E.K. 'Ted' Brown, the renowned cricket book dealer. The letter dated 5th June 1974 on Sunbury Nursing Home headed paper. Goldman thanks Brown for his letter requesting a meeting regarding Goldman's collection. 'July 7th seems hopeless. So many things have happened recently, which I can tell you on the phone.' Goldman lists problems stemming from his ill-health that restrict his opportunities to meet, and states 'I am as fit as I can hope... I won't dispose of my stuff elsewhere... I never break a promise you know... I seldom go out these days and I never go out in the evenings as I have to rest 14-16 hours every day... All the best, Yours sincerely, Joe'. Goldman died in 1978 in the same nursing home. G - cricket £40/60
- 472 W.G. Grace. Single page handwritten letter written in 1889 from Grace to Felix Fielding. The letter, undated, is laid down to card and headed 'The Oval', where Grace was playing for the Gentlemen v Players. Grace ask Fielding 'to come and keep wicket for the South v North at Manchester on Thursday next, 11th July [1889]. It is Pilling's benefit match and we shall have a jolly time. Please wire me here. Your truly, W.G. Grace'. To the verso are trimmed newspaper cuttings reporting the match, together with a modern photocopy of the full article. G - cricket £150/250
- Fielding, batting at number nine for the South, scored 10 and 3. The match was drawn. Richard Pilling, played 177 first class matches for Lancashire and eight Test matches for England*
- 473 George Harry Grey, 7th Baron Grey of Groby. Single page hand written letter to William Parsons of Leicester, dated 28th October 1830, sent from Dunham Massey, then Grey's home. The letter folds into a postal format with a date stamp and seal. Grey is replying to an invitation to join a committee 'to carry into effect an Archery & Cricket Club in the County of Leicester. The time of year for such amusements is one when my engagements will not permit me to visit Leicestershire, and however happy I should be to promote such objects as a Resident in the County, I must for the reasons I have stated decline the honor'. Signed by Groby. Minor staining and creasing, otherwise in good condition - cricket £100/150
- Grey's grandson, George Harry Booth Grey, played cricket for Cambridge University and M.C.C. and was elected President of Marylebone Cricket Club in 1851*
- 474 Leslie Gutteridge, publisher, Epworth Press. One page typed letter to John Arlott, dated 11th November 1965. Gutteridge is congratulating Arlott following a speech given to the Cricket Society the previous day. 'I have never heard you to better advantage than last evening. The quality of this most difficult speech was quite magnificent and could not have been improved upon'. He mentions praise given by W.L. Miron of the Coal Board, and the politician, Geoffrey Rippon who were in attendance. 'Rippon said that "Birkett at his best could not have matched the felicity of the language"'. Gutteridge had recorded the speech and invites Arlott 'and one day we may allow you to hear for yourself how good you can be!'. Signed in ink 'Leslie'. G - cricket £50/70
- Arlott's book, 'Alletson's Innings' was published by Epworth Press in 1957*
- 475 Arthur Haygarth, M.C.C. Sussex and Middlesex, 1844-1861. Four page hand written letter from Haygarth, dated 22nd April 1895. The letter is to an unknown correspondent to whom Haygarth had already written that morning. 'You may consider the "arrears" (1877-96) of the Scores & Biographies your own property on the two conditions I have [before] mentioned. To prevent mistakes I state them to you again - The MS [manuscript] is to be brought out on exactly the same lines as all the previous volumes & all the materials I ask for & require for the completion of the work are to be got for me free of expense to myself... Your return or as an equivalent for this, all profits by the sale of the work will be yours entirely. I neither wish for or would I accept anything. I shall be quite satisfied if between us we save the MS from the flames'. He continues by stipulating that the [S+B] forms must be sent out to cricketers, but be handled by the recipient of this letter, 'Your own name and address of course to be put instead of Mr.

- Perkins's [of M.C.C.]. Nicely signed 'Yours very truly, Arthur Haygarth'. An important record of the publication of his work. G - £150/250
- Arthur Haygarth is best remembered for compiling the fifteen volumes of 'Scores and Biographies', the first four published by F. Lillywhite, the remainder by M.C.C. At the time of writing Haygarth was disillusioned by the apparent failure of M.C.C. to continue to publish his manuscripts, Volume XIII covering 1874-1876 having been published some five years previously in 1880. The recipient of the letter may have been the collector, Thomas Padwick, as he was arranging for forms to be printed for Scores & Biographies for Haygarth in 1892. The letter was formerly owned by John Arlott, who has neatly annotated in pencil Haygarth's name and details*
- 476 John Berry 'Jack' Hobbs. Surrey & England, 1905-1934. Single page hand written letter from Hobbs to a Norman Pilleau, dated 25th June 1933. The letter is in reply to Pilleau's praise for Hobbs' centuries. 'What a shame we were washed out last Monday. I hope you will have better luck next time you are able to get to the Oval. I am not playing v Oxford as I am reporting for "The Star". Glad to hear you are going strong with the book, I don't know what you will do when it is complete!'. Nicely signed by Hobbs. G - cricket £50/70
- 477 Frank Stanley Jackson. Cambridge University, Yorkshire & England, 1890-1907. Two page hand written letter on Hyde Park Hotel notepaper, dated 7th September 1944. The letter to Mr [J.W.] Overend, author of books on cricket in Yorkshire. 'Thank you for kindly sending me "The Shipley Times & Express" of Aug 30th containing an article "The Greatest Innings I Ever Saw". I can recall the innings, one of Ranji's best; which means a lot. I am always interested in any reference to Ranjitsinhji both on & off the field. It was my good fortune to give him his "Blue" at Cambridge which launched him into 1st class cricket in this country. Later we met in his own country when he was "Jam Sahib of Nawangar" & I was Governor of Bengal. We hardly expected this to happen when we were young 'uns at Cambridge!!'. Nicely signed by Jackson. G - cricket £120/180
- 478 Sidney Austyn Paul Kitcat. M.C.C. & Gloucestershire, 1890-1904. Single page hand written letter on 'The Merchants Trust' headed notepaper, dated 11th June 1894. 'In reply to your favour of the 6th inst. I beg leave to hand you herewith form duly filled up & as regards your offer of "Wisdens", I have procured the last 17 years @ 1/6 each - a good bargain & so shall not want to avail myself of your offer'. Nicely signed by Kitcat. G/VG - cricket £70/100
- 479 Henry Dudley Gresham 'Shrimp' Leveson-Gower. Oxford University, Surrey & England, 1893-1931. Two page hand written letter dated 18th September 1910. The letter to 'My dear [William John] Abel' congratulating Abel on 'your having obtained - and deservedly so - your Surrey Cap. Apart from the great pleasure it gave me to give it to you, the pleasure was greatly increased by the fact that I knew how pleased your father would be and for him - to whom all supporters of Surrey Cricket must be for ever grateful - this success of yours must be very welcome. I hope you will keep well all the winter and that we may have many more matches together'. Nicely signed by Leveson Gower. Minor staining, otherwise in good condition - cricket £80/120
- William Abel, Surrey 1909-1926, played 171 first class matches for Surrey, and was the son of the famous Robert 'Bobby' Abel. Leveson-Gower was captain of Surrey when he presented the cap*
- 480 5th Earl of Lucan. Single page note hand written by Lucan, dated 27th May 1934. Recipient unknown. Presumably written in response to a request for his autograph. Nicely signed 'Lucan'. The letter is laid down to a page. G/VG - cricket £40/60
- Lucan was President of M.C.C. in 1928. His Grandson was the notorious 7th Earl of Lucan who disappeared in strange circumstances in 1974*
- 481 Edward Verrall Lucas, author, playwright and poet. Eight page hand written manuscript with title to front page 'With the best wishes of the M.C.C. Christmas 1938'. The article, in Lucas' distinctive hand, may have been the text accompanying that year's greetings card. The subject matter includes Alfred Mynn, 'the greatest and most illustrious of Kent cricketers' with other references to Caffyn, Felix, artist G.F. Watts, W.G. Grace and "Nicholas" [W.J.] Prowse, who had been at Felix's school [and] wrote one of the best cricket-poems in honour of the mighty man'. The manuscript is heavily corrected and amended by Lucas. Sold with an original copy of Lucas' birth certificate dated 12th June 1868. Paper clip rust mark to top left corner of manuscript, otherwise in good condition - cricket £100/150
- A keen cricketer and writer on the subject, Lucas was a member of J.M. Barrie's team the "Allahakbarries C.C.", along with Henry Herbert La Thangue and Arthur Conan Doyle. In 1950 Rupert Hart-Davis collected and published a collection of Lucas's essays, Cricket All His Life, which John Arlott described as "the best written of all books on cricket"*
- 482 Alan Wharton. Lancashire, Leicestershire & England, 1946-1963. Single page hand written letter in ink replying to a request asking Wharton for signatures from his current team, while playing for Lancashire. 'The collection of autographs amongst the rest of the team simply can't be done for we get hundreds of letters a day. However, here's mine'. Nicely signed by Wharton. Sold with the original envelope addressed to J.R. Davies, postmarked 29th July 1949. G/VG - cricket £20/30
- 483 Wombwell Cricket Lovers' Society 1955-1971. South West Clubs. Six hand written and typed letters to Jack Sokell responding to requests to attend Society functions etc. Correspondents include Wilfred Wooller (Glamorgan), Harold Gimblett, (Somerset), (Somerset) and Tony Brown (Gloucestershire). All three letters nicely signed in ink by the correspondent. G - cricket £25/35
- Ben Barnett lived in Buckinghamshire and played for the minor county team, before returning to Australia in 1974*
- 485 William Golding. Hand written one page letter to John Arlott dated 9th November (1971?) thanking him for a book (probably 'Fred') and 'flattering inscription - that is unless the 'Áúmaster hand' refers to my bowling, which might once upon a time indeed have fulfilled most of the requirements in the advertisement for a curate: low church, slow left-arm round the wicket'. Golding enjoyed the book but was 'appalled by its picture of Cricket as a mixture of warfare, total, urban, guerrilla and patriotic...'. Golding suggests that the book tends to confirm some people's view that 'Yorkshire should negotiate separately with the common market!' The letter is signed 'Ever, Bill Golding'. G/VG - cricket £300/400
- William Golding, 1911-1993, novelist, playwright and poet, Nobel prize winner, author of 'Lord of the Flies'. D.R. Allen in his biography of Arlott mentions Golding sending a copy of 'Rites of Passage' to Arlott who used to read pieces for him in his BBC poetry-producer days.*
- 486 Robert Elliott Storey Wyatt. Warwickshire, Worcestershire & England 1923-1951. Two page hand written letter dated 21st October (1962?) from Wyatt to J.D. Coldham, cricket author and collector, responding to Coldham's request for information on F.S. Jackson on whom he is writing an article for 'The Journal of the Cricket Society'. Wyatt states that 'Jackson gave the impression that he was not an easy person to know. He certainly did not suffer fools gladly but I found him very friendly & charming'. He praises Jackson as an international selector, 'always ready to listen to the opinions of others with patience & understanding. He was very loyal to me when I was being given a rough ride by the cheap press without a real knowledge of the game and always looking for a sensation'. He also refers to Jackson's 'wonderful Test match record... an astute captain who never seemed to lose the toss!'. Signed 'Robert E.S. Wyatt'. G/VG - cricket £50/70

A rare and early page of Indian cricketers signatures in very good condition - cricket £300/500
- After several abortive attempts, the first Indian team to include the three major sections of non-European cricket in India came to England in 1911. An ambitious tour programme was arranged for the team and their record was not very impressive, with only two first class wins, although they were cursed with injury and drop outs throughout the tour*
- 499 Gloucestershire 1904. Nottinghamshire v Gloucestershire, Trent Bridge 18th-20th July 1904. Large album page very nicely signed in black ink by ten members of the Gloucestershire team. Signatures are G.L. Jessop (Capt), Brownlee, Thomas, Robinson, Spry, Dennett, Langdon, Huggins, Wrathall and Sellick. Lacking the signature of J.H. Broad from the full eleven. A rare and fairly early set of signatures. Very good condition - cricket £130/160
- Gloucestershire won the match by an innings and one run. Jessop starred for Gloucestershire making 206 in their only innings and completed his double century in only 140 minutes. - JOHN BRIGGS. LANCASHIRE & ENGLAND 1879-1900
- A selection of cricket ephemera relating to Johnny Briggs of Lancashire & England, a notably short man at about five feet five inches tall. Briggs still stands as the second-highest wicket-taker in the county's history. In the early days of Test cricket, Briggs was one of the most successful bowlers, proving deadly whenever wickets were affected by rain, whilst both for his county and country his batting was very useful. He was the first bowler in Test cricket to take 100 wickets, and held the record of most wickets in Test cricket on two occasions. He toured Australia a record six times*
- 519 Yorkshire v Lancashire, Fartown, Huddersfield 1889. Original handwritten telegram sent by Johnny Briggs from Huddersfield to his home at the Crosskeys Public House, Appleton village near Widnes and dated 8th July 1889. The telegram reads 'Briggs, Crosskeys. Widnes. Lancashire won 3 runs. Splendid match'. Some staining and wear to edges of telegram otherwise in good condition. G - cricket £60/90
- The 1889 'Roses' match played at Fartown was a fairly low scoring and tight match, Lancashire batted first and made 81 all out, Ulyett, seven wickets and Peel, three wickets bowling them out. Briggs top scoring with 25 runs. Yorkshire replied with a first innings score of 160 all out, Mold taking six and Briggs three wickets. Lord Hawke*
- with 52 and Lee with 42 were the top scorers for Yorkshire. Lancashire then scored 153 not out in their second innings, Briggs, again top scoring with 41, Ulyett five and Peel three wickets and bowled out Yorkshire for only 71, winning by three runs. Mold taking seven wickets for thirty five runs to finish with thirteen wickets in the match. This win ranks fourth in Lancashire's all time narrowest margin of victory in any match*

CRICKET POSTCARDS, CIGARETTE & TRADE CARDS

535 Australian tour of England 1930. Official black guard book (black ledger shaped album) containing the original materials for an advertising campaign for B.D.V. cigarettes (Godfrey Phillips of London). The items include seven various printers proof advertisements for newspapers and magazines (all different), a large folded poster (similar in style to the printers proof advertisements, two rare 12 page B.D.V. booklets, one entitled 'How I get Wickets' by C.V. Grimmett and the other 'How Don Bradman makes Centuries' by C.V. Grimmett and fifteen sepia real photograph postcards of each member of the Australian touring party. Each player featured on the postcards has been taken, head and shoulders, wearing Australian sweater, nine wearing Australian caps. Each card has been very nicely signed by the player featured in ink. The players are Bill Woodfull, Vic Richardson, Don Bradman, Alan Fairfax, Archie Jackson, Bill Ponsford, Alan Kippax, Stan McCabe, Clarrie Grimmett, Alexander Hurwood, Thomas Wall, Percy Hornibrook, Bert Oldfield, Ted a'Beckett and Charles Walker. Each postcard has a printed number 1-15 to the right hand corner of the postcard. In addition there is a one page letter, handwritten by Don Bradman, dated 2nd July 1930 on Midland Hotel letterhead, to a Mr Dalton regarding the 'production of our respective booklets in connection with the B.V.D.

advertising scheme. They are really very fine and pleased us immensely'. Signed by both Bradman and Grimmett and a signed mono photograph of Bradman, very similar to the images used in the booklet. One of the advertisements state 'Autographs of the Australians for you. Every Australian Cricketer will sign his name for you... in ink... if you smoke B.D.V. Change to B.D.V. today. Save the coupons. Get each autograph separately or all together on a cabinet photograph of the team!'. For 30 coupons, you got 'The personal autograph in ink of any Australian you choose. On gummed paper ready to fix in your album'. For 40 coupons, you got 'A postcard photograph of your favourite Australian personality personally autographed by him' and for 300 coupons you got 'A specially taken 12"x10" photograph of the whole team, personally signed in ink by each player. To top right hand corner 'B.D.V. cigarettes are being supplied to the Australian team throughout the tour. 'Well worth signing for' they say'. Some of the advertisements and the booklets refer to the 'Flickers' or 'Thumb Cinemas' books produced by both Bradman and Grimmett, these have always been thought to have been published by Flicker Productions Ltd, London but obviously again this was part of the Godfrey Phillips 1930 advertising campaign. Each item, be it postcard, poster, advertisement, letter, photograph and booklet are very loosely tipped into the album. It would appear that the advertising campaign started in June 1930 as the poster states 'Bravo Bradman. 1,000 runs by May 31st'. Further non cricket advertising proofs to the rear of the album. The album and contents in good/very good condition. A unique item from the 1930 Australian tour - cricket £2000/3000

Collectors of postcards have been collecting this set of fifteen sepia postcards for many years and understood that they were an anonymous plain back real photograph postcard produced for the 1930 tour but did not know who had produced them. From the contents of this album we now know that they were produced by Godfrey Phillips of London as part of their advertising campaign. A number of Godfrey Phillips cigarette cards, such as Pinnacle', have a similar number to the right hand corner of the card. The booklets and cabinet cards of the team have not been seen before by the auctioneers and the booklets are not mentioned in Padwick and despite research we cannot trace any mention of them. We have found that one of the advertisements appeared in the Adventure magazine on the 12th July 1930, midway through the tour. The day before this advertisement ran, Don Bradman scored 309 runs on the first day's play during the 3rd Ashes Test played at Headingley. Interesting, fresh and significant information for postcard collectors.....

THE 1912 TRIANGULAR CRICKET SERIES

The 1912 Triangular Tournament was a Test cricket series played between Australia, England and South Africa, the only Test-playing nations at the time. The ultimate winners of the tournament were England, with four wins in their six matches, but the tournament was deemed a failure, with disappointing crowds and uncompetitive cricket, caused in part by a weakened Australia team. The tournament is one of only three tournaments in Test history to have been played between more than two nations, the others being the Asian Test Championships of 1998/99 and 2001/02

- 593 Australian tour of England 1912. Large album page very nicely signed in black ink by fourteen members of the touring party to England for the Triangular Tournament series with England and South Africa in 1912. Signatures are Syd Gregory (Capt), Bardsley, Jennings, Minnett,

Macartney, Webster, Kelleway, Hazlitt, Smith, Emery, Matthews, McLaren, Whitty and Mayne. Plus the ink signature of G.S. Crouch, the tour Manager. Lacking the signature of Carkeek from the full touring party. Bardsley has signed the page twice and has put a line through the second signature. Very good condition. A rare set of ink signatures from the Triangular tournament - cricket £500/700

The Australians beat South Africa in two Tests and lost to England in one test with the other Tests drawn. The signatures were probably signed at the Australia v South Africa Test match played at Old Trafford, Manchester on the 27th and 28th May 1912

When the First World War ended in November 1918, thousands of Australian servicemen were in Europe as members of the First Australian Imperial Force (AIF) and many remained until the spring of 1919. In England, a new first-class cricket season was planned, the first since 1914, and an idea that came to fruition was the formation of an Australian touring side made up of servicemen. The Australian Imperial Force Touring XI was formed, initially under the captaincy of pre-war Test player Charlie Kelleway. Kelleway departed after only six matches following a dispute about the fixtures list. A players' meeting elected future Test player Herbie Collins as team captain for the remainder of the tour, despite the fact that Collins' military rank was lance corporal and there were seven officers in the party. The bulk of the team remained intact for nearly nine months from May 1919, playing thirty three matches in Great Britain, ten in South Africa on their way home and then another three in Australia itself before disbanding in February 1920, with only four defeats, all of these in England. The players lived on their army pay and all profits from gate money went to an AIF Sports Control Board

The AIF Sports Control Board was fully supported by the Australian Board of (Cricket) Control which appointed Major Gordon Campbell, the former South Australia wicket-keeper, as its representative in meetings about a proposed AIF team and tour. The Board of Control retained control of the team and awarded first-class status to most of its matches but much of the practical organisation, especially of fixtures, was undertaken by Surrey County Cricket Club and their representative Howard Lacey became the team manager. Lacey had organised a charity match in August 1918 between his own invitation XI and an Australian XI. The Sports Board began trials in February 1919 and there was an enthusiastic response from many servicemen with first-class or grade cricket experience. Despite the fact that some of the players still carried war injuries, the Sports Board was able to form a strong team which came to be billed as the Australian Imperial Force Touring XI. Given the large number of applicants, the AIF formed a second eleven which toured the minor cricket circuit in England, playing against league clubs, county club colts, public schools and club teams. The second eleven played 55 matches and lost only eleven but few of its members ever played more than first-grade club cricket when they returned to Australia.

SYDNEY FRANCIS BARNES COLLECTION

S.F. Barnes was an English professional cricketer who is generally regarded as one of the greatest ever bowlers. He was right-handed and bowled at a pace that varied from medium to fast-medium with the ability to make the ball both swing and break from off or leg. Barnes was unusual in that, despite a very long career as a top-class player, he spent little more than two seasons in first-class cricket, representing Warwickshire and Lancashire. Instead, he preferred league and minor counties cricket for mostly professional reasons. He played for several clubs in the Lancashire, North Staffordshire, Bradford and Central Lancashire leagues between 1895 and 1934. In addition, he had two phases playing for Staffordshire in the Minor Counties Championship. In Test cricket, Barnes played for England in 27 matches from 1901 to 1914, taking 189 wickets at 16.43, one of the lowest Test bowling averages ever achieved.

- 801 'The Job of Being Captain'. Len Hutton. Original four page typed manuscript by Hutton for an article in the Boys Annual, date unknown. The article covers the subject of captaincy and the importance and honour of the role, 'It is more than an honour. It is a task of great responsibility... a captain, in effect, holds in trust the cricket tradition of his school or club or county or country'. Hutton refers to Yorkshire's 'great tradition of sound captaincy, including Lord Hawke, Chichester-Constable, under whom Hutton played when captain of the Yorkshire 2nd XI, Brian Sellars, 'one of the greatest captains English county cricket has seen', and Norman Yardley, 'so I had a pretty good upbringing in the requirements of cricket captaincy'. He continues by describing the qualities and personality required, 'He must be able to lead. He must think ahead... He must be cheerful, optimistic, yet firm when an element of discipline is required. That does not mean being excessively bossy on the field'. Regarding tactics Hutton states 'The good captain always thinks out his batting order long before he gets to the ground... Usually the best and soundest batsmen should open... [but] never be afraid to switch the order to get more runs quickly if they are needed... He should have a clear idea of the general field settings for his various bowlers... to study each batsman, note his best strokes and his weakest'. Regarding bowlers, 'However well any bowler is bowling never tire him out. Rest him so that he can come back again'. Hutton concludes with the importance of seeking advice from experienced players, attacking a new batsman, the best position to field, and the need to 'insist on the highest level of sportsmanship at all times... and set the right example - even down to the elementary thing of seeing that his shoes are well studded, his bat well cared for and his flannels and shirt well pressed'. An intriguing insight into Hutton's approach to captaincy. Some annotations and corrections apparently in Hutton's

own hand. G/VG - cricket

- 802 'The Captain's Job'. Len Hutton. Original ten page typed manuscript by Hutton for an article, date and publication unknown. Hutton opens with an anecdote, 'When I returned to the pavilion at Lord's, bowled for a "duck" in my first Test match, I thought I had lost my place in England's team for good. An unsympathetic remark from my captain at that moment might have shattered my confidence for many matches to come. But what R.W.V. Robins said to me was "For goodness' sake, Len, don't do that against the Aussies next year!". It was a shrewd and understanding action on the part of my skipper... it taught me the value of a captain who has studied the character and capabilities of each man in his team'. Hutton then describes captains he has played under or who influenced his career. Captain Chichester-Constable led the Yorkshire Second XI 'when I played in the Minor Counties Championship at the age of seventeen' and describes the respect in which he was held and the team spirit, from which he learned 'it is better to have a lion at the head of an army of sheep, than a sheep at the head of an army of lions'. On having earned his place in the Yorkshire county side, Hutton 'had the advantage of the skilful leadership and the personal encouragement of Brian Sellars'. He describes Sellar's inability to win the toss, 'in one season alone... he lost the toss thirteen times in succession' and recounts Pelham Warner's description of Stanley Jackson as 'Jacker was a good tosser'. Warner's own captaincy is described as that of "The General", 'he led his teams "into battle" and inspired them by personal example'. Wally Hammond 'was a leader in the same mould'. Hutton continues with the advice on the need to practice 'to improve your own ability', wicket inspection, assessment of the opposition, the decision whether to bat or bowl first, batting order, declarations, how to bowl and set fields, in particular to a new batsman etc. Regarding decision making Hutton states 'Be the boss. Take a firm line with slackers... before giving a decision, don't neglect to consult your bowlers, your wicket-keeper, and other experienced members of the team'. Regarding the suitability of different types of players to captaincy he says, 'in many respects the man behind the stumps is in an ideal position to captain a side himself, although for some reason wicket-keeper captains are a rarity... a specialist bowler is not in a good position to act a skipper, because he is often doubtful as to when to put himself on to bowl and when to take himself off... Yet I have known many fine bowler-captains whose judgement in this respect could not be criticised. The article closes with Hutton's opinion on sportsmanship including appealing, 'Only the wicket-keeper or bowler is really in a position to judge whether a batsman can be given out L.B.W., for instance, and they are the only ones who should be allowed to appeal'.

- 803 'L. Hutton - Cricket Broadcast'. Original four page typed manuscript by Hutton for a broadcast, date unknown, possibly 1950. Written in the spring with a new season impending, Hutton describes how 'during the next three weeks youngsters will be having their first trials at the Yorkshire County Nets at Headingley' and his memories of his childhood, 'The only times we handled a real leather ball was during a match when the batsmen hit a boundary and we chased after the ball, what a scramble it was to hold it and gaze at this real leather cricket ball for a few moments before returning it to the fieldsman. Due to the many windows in the close vicinity we were only allowed a rubber or tennis ball, nevertheless much of my pocket money was spent on having broken windows replaced'. He continues by describing the batting grip and stance he employed '[as] used by Don Bradman, Walter Hammond, Maurice Leyland, and many other first class players', and while the position of the right hand 'is very nearly the same with all batsmen the left hand varies', quoting Bill Edrich and Denis Compton as examples. Hutton describes his heroes as

Herbert Sutcliffe, Jack Hobbs, and 'In my early days at the nets under the watchful eye of George Hirst who loved to have boys around him' and how Hirst would relate stories of W.G. Grace, Victor Trumper and others while travelling on the tram to Leeds. Hutton looks forward to the visit of the West Indian tourists and 'the improvement in West Indian cricket during the last twenty years... due largely I think to the inspiration of Headly [sic] and Constantine, two of the greatest players the game has yet seen' and refers to the quality of Everton Weekes, Frank Worrell, Clyde Walcott, their 'battery of three fast bowlers with the pace of Lindwall' and the captain John Goddard. Hutton closes with the advice 'To those of you in authority particularly amongst schoolboys... to provide good practice and match wickets, and to you who use them don't be afraid to help with the rolling...'. - 804 'England v Australia 1972'. Original four page typed manuscript by Hutton for an article previewing the impending 'Ashes' series. Hutton opens with his pleasure at that Winter is over 'and we can get back to sanity and sunshine with our summer games', and remembers supporting Leeds United 'in the days of Edwards, Hart and Copping, also the Milburn brothers, I shivered more times than I care to remember watching the stars of those days'. Hutton then continues with an assessment of the forthcoming series between the young Australians against the more experienced England team and how Australia will need to adapt to the conditions, commenting on their good fielding, catching and how 'their keenness [sic] is always to be admired, and does much to overcome technical deficiencies [sic] which all cricketers have'. Hutton's opinion is that 'overseas cricketers develop at an earlier age than English cricketers... Maurice Tate advised Don Bradman to play with a straighter bat before coming to England in 1930'. He believes that England will be the stronger side 'provided of course that we do not

- suffer serious injuries to players like Edrich, and Boycott, also Snow if he is trying this year', and discusses the potential of upcoming bowlers, Alan Ward of Derbyshire and Chris Old of Yorkshire. Hutton compares Ernie McCormack on the 1938 tour, also Lindwall, Johnston and Miller, with Lillee, Massie and Hammond 'who are Australia's shock opening bowlers'. He comments on how in Australia 'there are no good players you are either a champ or a no hoper' and how, during a run of poor batting form when on tour in Australia cricketers, he was fielding on the boundary in front of the Hill at Sydney Cricket Ground when a 'shirt sleeved Aussie with his handkerchief knotted at each corner, and placed on his head... called to me "Don't worry Hutton you'll come good'. Hutton describes England wicket-keeper, Alan Knott, as a "Wick" (a lively, small insect), and the weakness of both teams' spin attacks, including the Australians, Mallett and Gleeson, the latter potentially being a danger 'if by now he has learned to give the ball a little more air... So I anticipate a good dosage of seam bowling'. Some annotations and corrections apparently in Hutton's own hand. Attached is a single page hand written letter to "Cliff", dated 6th April 1972, offering 'some views on the tour'. Nicely signed 'Len'. G/VG - cricket £250/350

JONATHAN PAYN FELLOWS-SMITH CRICKET COLLECTION

- Jonathan Payn 'Pom Pom' Fellows-Smith. M.C.C., Northamptonshire, Oxford University, Transvaal & South Africa, 1953 - 1964. Fellows-Smith played four Test Matches for South Africa, all on the 1960 tour to England. A powerful batsman and medium pace bowler. Of his 94 first-class appearances, only 14 were made in South Africa, for Transvaal. He won a Blue for both cricket and Rugby Union when at Oxford University. Hailing from a cricketing family, his father, Herbert, 'Bartie', and uncles, Guy and Cecil Payne, each had short first class cricket careers for Natal*
- 853 South Africa tour to England 1947. A nicely compiled album/ scrapbook covering the tour containing forty pages of tour itineraries, original press photographs, press cuttings etc. The album in original protective cloth cover with hand written title to front. The final page is nicely signed in ink by all seventeen members of the South African touring party. Signatures are Melville (captain), Nourse, Mitchell, Tuckett, Dawson, Harris, Rowan, Fullerton, Ovenstone, Plimsoll, Mann, Lindsay, Smith, Payn, Begbie and Dyer. Seventeen original press photographs include Lindsay having been knocked out while keeping wicket at Worcester, Ovenstone taking a spectacular catch against Surrey, Mitchell being applauded off the field at Lord's having scored 103 v M.C.C., also action photographs from the Test matches at Lord's, Old Trafford, Headingley etc. Other items include two tour itineraries and a 'Shell' tour fixture card, and a good selection of press cuttings from tour matches, arrival at Southampton Docks, presentation to King George VI etc. An excellent record of the tour. G - £150/250
- The origin of this album is not known, none of the Fellows-Smith family were involved in the tour. It is therefore likely that this album was passed to the family by one of the members of the touring party. Included is a colour candid photograph taken at the Oxford University C.C. reunion in 2004, of Fleetwood-Smith with the former captain of the University team, Tony Pawson. The tour was not a great success for the South Africans, England winning the Test series 3-0 with two matches drawn*
- 854 Jonathan Payn Fellows-Smith. 1947-1955. Photograph/ scrapbook album covering Fellows-Smith's early years including his time at Oxford University. The inside cover features a candid photograph of Fellows-Smith in batting pose, with a caption below, 'The hope of his side - aged 7'. The first eighteen pages are dedicated to his rugby appearances, the remainder to cricket. The album contains thirty five original mono team, action and candid photographs featuring Fellows-Smith for the period. Rugby team photographs include v Trinity College, Dublin, 1953 and 1955, v Cambridge University 1954 etc. Oxford University cricket team photographs featuring Fellows-Smith include v Pakistan 1954 and v Australia 1956. Official Oxford University cricket scorecards include v Australians 1953, v South Africans 1955, and county matches. Also contains a good selection of printed rugby and cricket fixture cards, telegrams to his family regarding his selection for upcoming rugby matches at Twickenham, the cricket Varsity Match at Lord's 1953, press cuttings, an M.C.C. member's card for 1958 etc. Also includes original mono photographs of 'O.U.C.C. enjoying lunch at the Carlsberg Brewery in Copenhagen during their tour of Denmark (July 1954)' and a photograph of Freddie Brown addressing the O.U. Authentics for 'Jon's introduction to his first employer, British Timken of Northampton'. G - £150/250
- 855 'Gentlemen v Players at Lord's 1955'. Official mono photograph of the Gentlemen team for the match played at Lord's 13th-15th July 1955. The players seated and standing in rows in blazers. Players featured are Insole (captain), Goonesena, Tordoff, Cowdrey, M.J.K. Smith, Fellows-Smith, Pretlove, Warr, Barnett, Palmer and Marl. Elaborate hand painted titles and players names to mount borders. The photograph measures 10"x8", laid to photographer's mount, framed and glazed, overall 16"x13". A good image. Slight ageing to mount, otherwise in good/very good condition - cricket £50/70
- Players won by 20 runs, Fellows-Smith top scoring for the Gentlemen in their second innings with 51 runs*
- 856 'Oxford University v South Africans 1955'. South African players include Cheetham (captain), McGlew, McLean, Duckworth, Goddard, Fuller, Smith, Heine etc. Oxford University players include Williams (captain), Fellows-Smith, M.J.K. Smith etc. The photograph with elaborate hand painted title and players' names to mount borders, by Gillman & Soame of Oxford measures 11.5"x9.5". Mounted and framed, overall 18"x14.5". A nice image. Some wear to mount, the photograph in very good condition - cricket £50/70
- The South Africans won the match by an innings and 137 runs. Fellows-Smith top scored for Oxford with 28 and 40 in their two innings*
- 857 'Currie Cup Tournament 1958/59. Winners - Transvaal'. Official mono photograph of twenty team members seated and standing in rows in cricket attire with the trophy. Players featured who represented South Africa are Waite (captain), Funston, Adcock, Taylor, Endean, Carlstein, O'Linn, Walter, Fellows-Smith, Varnals etc. The photograph with printed title and players' names to mount borders, by Maurice measures 14.5"x11". Mounted and framed, overall 21"x17". Good image. Minor wear to mount, the photograph in very good condition - cricket £30/50

- 858 Transvaal cap. Official Transvaal black cloth cap worn by Fellows-Smith. The cap embroidered with the Transvaal lion emblem and below 'Transvaal'. Fellows-Smith's name handwritten to the inside of the cap. The cap with wear and 'sun' fading to cloth and peak extremities and small tears to lining, about good condition - cricket £140/180
- 859 'Jonathan Payn Fellows-Smith (Transvaal)'. Original pen and ink cartoon of Fellows-Smith by 'Leyden'. The cartoon shows Fellows-Smith with his distinctive blond curly hair, tossing a cricket ball, and a smaller caricature of him bowling. The lengthy caption describes Fellows-Smith's 'Blues' awarded at Natal University for cricket and tennis, and his Double Blue at Oxford University for cricket and rugby. It also celebrates his various sporting achievements including taking '7 wickets for 23 runs playing for Oxford v D.R. Jardine's XI', scoring 50 for Gentlemen v Players including 'hitting Bedser for a 6', playing cricket for Northamptonshire and rugby for Northampton and the East Midlands etc. Excellent image. Framed and glazed, overall 10.5"x12.5". Some ageing, otherwise in good condition - cricket £150/250
- The political cartoonist, Jock Leyden, was born in Scotland and moved to South Africa aged eighteen. Leyden was taken on by a daily newspaper in Durban and soon became renowned for his hard-hitting political sketches, particularly those tackling the thorny issue of apartheid*

- 864 South Africa tour to England 1960. Large thick scrapbook in green cloth covers containing a comprehensive collection of photographs, press cuttings, and ephemera relating to the full tour, all collected by Fellows-Smith. The album comprises over twenty original mono press and candid photographs including practice in the nets at Lord's, Fellows-Smith in batting action during the match v Essex, match action v M.C.C. at Lord's, the team arriving at Edgbaston for the first Test, etc. Also official tour souvenir brochures, typed fixture list, telegrams sent to Fellows-Smith congratulating him on his unbeaten century against Essex, a hand written note to Fellows-Smith from M.J.K. Smith looking forward to their meeting at Birmingham later in the summer, Park Lane hotel postcards, Surrey C.C.C. membership card for 1960, official scorecards, cricket magazines, Fellows-Smith's original ticket for the South African Airways return flight to Johannesburg, hand written tour averages. The album also includes many original menus and table lists including for the British Sportman's Club luncheon at the Savoy Hotel, 21st April 1960, Lord's Taverners Spring Luncheon, held at the Empress Club, London on 2nd May 1960, other official invitations to Fellows-Smith for functions, theatre programmes, official souvenir for the marriage of Princess Margaret to Anthony Armstrong-Jones, etc. In addition to comprehensive coverage of the matches played on the tour, the press cuttings include many articles on the question of the bowler Griffin's dubious bowling action. An excellent personal record of this notorious tour - cricket £250/350
- The touring party were 'welcomed' by a crowd of five hundred anti-apartheid protesters at Heathrow Airport, and the press coverage leading up to the tour was focussed on the political issues more than the cricket. David Sheppard refused to play for England against the South Africans as a protest against apartheid and demonstrations continued throughout the tour South Africa also had problems on the field. The fast bowler, Geoff Griffin, was no-balled twice for throwing in the match v M.C.C. and eleven times in the second Test at*

- Lord's, after which he bowled no more during the remainder of the tour and played only as a batsman. The tour was spoiled by a wet summer and was a financial disaster, being the first tour since the Second World War not to make a profit. England won the Test series 3-0 with two matches drawn. Fellows-Smith had a mixed tour, scoring 863 runs and taking 32 wickets, and he played in four of the five Tests without taking a wicket*
- 865 England v South Africa, Lord's 1960. Official scorecard for the second Test Match played at Lord's, 23rd-28th June 1960. The complete scorecard with printed scores is nicely signed in ink by eighteen South African and England players. South African signatures include McGlew (captain), Adcock, Fellows-Smith, Tayfield, O'Linn, Goddard, McLean, Griffin etc. England signatures include Cowdrey (captain), Subba Row, Illingworth, M.J.K. Smith, Statham etc. Adhesive damage to verso, otherwise in good condition - cricket £50/70
- England won by an innings and 73 runs. M.J.K. Smith top scored for England with 99 in their only innings. Statham had match figures of 11-97. The South African bowler, Griffin was no-balled for throwing eleven times*
- 866 South Africa tour to England 1960. Original typed letter on 'The Anti-Apartheid Movement' headed paper, from the Deputy Director, Keith L. Lye, to Fellows-Smith while staying at the Park Lane Hotel, Picadilly. Dated 14th April 1960, Lye writes, 'You have been greeted by demonstrations and pickets on your arrival in London and you will probably be met by similar protests later in your tour. We would like you to understand clearly that they are not directed at you personally, but they are planned to show British public indignation at the South African Government policy of apartheid which imposes a colour bar upon an international cricket side. We would be grateful if you would make known your views on apartheid in sport. Would you be prepared to acknowledge that your side cannot claim to be a representative South African team? What is your own attitude to race discrimination in sport? Are you prepared to allowed the principle of apartheid to continue in South African cricket, and are you planning any action that will help to abolish colour bar in international teams?' Signed in ink by Lye, with original envelope. Sold with an original poster laid down to album page, entitled 'Apartheid isn't Cricket... No politics in sport' and refers to David Sheppard's refusal to 'play against or watch these all-white tourists'. A rare and interesting record of this historic episode in international cricket. Adhesive damage to verso of envelope, otherwise in good condition - cricket £80/120
- The touring party were 'welcomed' by a crowd of five hundred anti-apartheid protesters at Heathrow Airport, and the press coverage leading up to the tour was focussed on the political issues more than the cricket. The cap, by Farmer's of Sydney, with label inside with name handwritten 'V. Richardson' to label in black ink in Richardson's hand. Very minor wear otherwise in good/very good condition. A cap from the 1932/33 'Bodyline' series must surely be the ultimate possession of any serious cricket cap collector. A rare and unique cap from the iconic series which caused such controversy and ill feeling with its leg theory bowling has had long lasting repercussions on both Test and County cricket £12000/18000
- Victor Richardson a talented right-handed batsman and rated one of the best fielder in the world made his first-class debut for South Australia in the 1918/19 season. In a career that lasted twenty years he played 184 matches for Australia and South Australia, scoring 10,724 runs, including 27 centuries and averaged 37.63 runs per inning. As a measure of his fielding capabilities, he took 211 catches and even completed four stumpings as a stand-in wicketkeeper. He captained the Australian team in five Tests v South Africa and was vice Captain on the Australian tour of England in 1930 and the Bodyline series in Australia 1932/33. Richardson played in nineteen Tests for Australia averaging 23.5 with a highest Test score of 138 v England at Melbourne in 1924/25 during which he hooked Harold Larwood for six. He was a grandfather to three future Australian Test cricketers, Ian Chappell, Greg Chappell (who both also captained Australia) and Trevor Chappell. He was recalled to the Australian team for the 1932/33 series, having not played a Test since the 1930 Australian tour of England, as his combative batting was seen as the answer to the English bodyline tactics. In the 1st Test, at Sydney, his 49 assisted Stan McCabe in a fifth wicket partnership of 129, while in the 4th Test, at Brisbane, he made 83 out of an opening partnership of 133 with Captain, Bill Woodfull. In the last Test, at Sydney, Harold Larwood dismissed him without scoring in the first over of each innings. Apparently during the Test series, Richardson was quoted as exclaiming to his team mates "which of you bastards called (Harold) Larwood a bastard instead of this bastard (Douglas Jardine)?" Richardson was a gifted sportsman and excelled in other sports besides cricket including State level Australian rules football, baseball (national and state representative), golf (state representative), tennis (state title winner), lacrosse, basketball and swimming. This cap was previously sold by Charles Leski Auctions as lot 407 in May 2002. In nearly twenty three years of trading, Knights have sold only three pre second world war Australian Test caps. The only recorded 1932/33 'Bodyline' series caps sold at auction are the caps of Clarrie Grimmett ($1,200, in 1988), Bill Woodfull ($23,000, approximately £13,000, in 1999) and Bert Oldfield ($28,000, approximately £15,000 in 2000).
