CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. A buyer's premium of 19% (plus V.A.T. @ 20%) of the hammer price is payable by the buyers of all lots.
2. Cheques to be made payable to 'Knights Sporting Limited'.
3. Knights Sporting Ltd, Registered Office, The Thatched Gallery, The Green, Aldborough, Norwich, Norfolk. NR11 7AA
4. Postage and packing will be charged at current rates for all postal deliveries.
- 4a Postage and packing is subject to V.A.T. at 20%.
5. The seller warrants to the Auctioneer and to the buyer that he is the true owner or is properly authorised to sell the property by the true owner and is able to transfer good and marketable title to the property free from any third party claim.
6. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If during the auction the Auctioneer considers that a dispute has arisen he has absolute authority to settle it or re-offer the lot. The Auctioneer may at his sole discretion determine the advance of bidding or refuse a bid, divide any lot, combine any two or more lots or withdraw any lot without prior notice.
7. The buyer shall pay the price at which a lot is knocked down by the Auctioneer to the buyer (the hammer price) together with a premium of 19% (plus V.A.T. @ 20%) of the hammer price, all of which are hereafter collectively referred to as 'the total sum due'. By making any bid the buyer acknowledges that his attention has been drawn to the fact that on the sale of any lot the Auctioneer will receive from the seller commission at its usual rates in addition to the said premium of 19% (plus V.A.T. @ 20%) and assents to the Auctioneer receiving the said commission.
8. The buyer shall forthwith upon the purchase give in his name and pay to the Auctioneer immediately after the conclusion of the auction the total sum due.
9. If the buyer fails to pay for or take away any lot or lots the Auctioneer as agent for the seller shall be entitled after consultation with the seller to exercise one or other of the following rights:
 - i) Rescind the sale of that or any other lots sold to the buyer who defaults and re-sell the lot or lots whereupon the defaulting buyer shall pay to the Auctioneer any shortfall between the proceeds of that sale after deduction of costs of re-sale and the total sum due. Any surplus shall belong to the seller.
 - ii) Proceed with damages for breach of contract.
10. Ownership of the lot purchased shall not pass to the buyer until he has paid to the Auctioneer the total sum due.
11. The seller shall be entitled to place a reserve on any lot and the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller for any lot on which a reserve has been placed. A seller may not bid on any lot on which a reserve has been placed.
12. All unsold lots will attract a fee per lot of £10.00 + VAT.
- 12a. Where any lot fails to sell, the Auctioneer shall notify the seller accordingly. The seller shall make arrangements either to re-offer the lot for sale or to collect the lot.
13. Any representation or statement by the Auctioneer in any catalogue, brochure or advertisement of forthcoming sales as to authorship, attribution, genuineness, origin, date, age, provenance, condition or estimated selling price is a statement of opinion only. Every person interested should exercise and rely on his own judgement as to such matters and neither the Auctioneer nor his servants or agents are responsible for the correctness of such opinions. No warranty whatsoever is given by the Auctioneer or the seller in respect of any lot and any express or implied warranties are hereby excluded.
14. Notwithstanding any other terms of these conditions, if within fourteen days of the sale the Auctioneer has received from the buyer of any lot notice in writing that in his view the lot is a deliberate forgery and within fourteen days after such notification the buyer returns the same to the Auctioneer in the same condition as at the time of the sale and satisfies the Auctioneer that considered in the light of the entry in the catalogue the lot is a deliberate forgery then the sale of the lot will be rescinded and the purchase price of the same refunded. 'A deliberate forgery' means a lot made with intent to deceive.
15. A buyer's claim under the above condition shall be limited to the amount paid to the Auctioneer for the lot and for the purpose of this condition the buyer shall be the person to whom the original invoice was made out by the Auctioneer.
16. Lots may be removed during the sale after full settlement.
17. All goods delivered to the Auctioneer's premises will be deemed to be delivered for sale by auction unless otherwise stated in writing and will be catalogued and sold at the Auctioneer's discretion and accepted by the Auctioneer subject to all these conditions. By delivering the goods to the Auctioneer for inclusion in his auction sales each seller acknowledges that he/she accepts and agrees to all the conditions.
18. The Auctioneer shall remit the proceeds of the sale to the seller no later than forty days after the day of the auction provided that the Auctioneer has received the total sum due from the buyer. In all other cases the Auctioneer will remit the proceeds of sale to the seller within seven days of the receipt by the Auctioneer of the total sum due. The Auctioneer will not be deemed to have received the total sum due until after any cheque delivered by the buyer has been cleared. In the event of the Auctioneer exercising his right to rescind the sale his obligation to the seller hereunder lapses.
19. In the case of the seller withdrawing instructions to the Auctioneer to sell any lot or lots, the Auctioneer may charge a fee of the lot withdrawn and any expenses incurred in respect of the lot or lots.
20. Live telephone bidding
 - i) Live telephone bidding can be arranged (subject to paragraph 20iii) below) by contacting the Auctioneer two days prior to the day of the Auction.
 - ii) Knight's have a mandatory minimum lot estimate of £80.00 on all live calls.
 - iii) The arrangement referred to in paragraph 20i) above will be at the buyer's risk and no guarantee can be given by the Auctioneer that telephone facilities will be available or working on the day of the Auction.
21. These conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English Law.

AUTOGRAPHED CRICKET EPHEMERA

19 Wilfred Rhodes. Yorkshire & England 1898-1930. Three page handwritten letter, on 24 March Grove Road, Huddersfield headed paper, from Rhodes to a Mr Milne. The letter dated 7th January 1947 and refers almost entirely to England's performance in Australia (1946/47 tour). I think you are quite right about our bowling, don't think anyone expected fireworks from them as regards our battery, that has been very disappointing.... Hutton - Hammond have let us down badly and expect they will be disappointed themselves. Hutton doesn't appear to relish the shock tactics with the new ball. Hammond has failed at the googlies, a change of places may alter things. The Australian bowlers appear too good for us & are the better side. I have never had a great opinion of Wright and if he has bowled as well as our press make out he must be lacking somewhere. I cannot see how we can get the Aussies out twice in six days play so therefore have little chance of winning a Test'. G - cricket

20 J.B. Hobbs, Surrey & England 1905-1934. One page handwritten letter, on 3 Sunnyside Mansion, Hove headed paper, from Hobbs to a Mr Higson. Hobbs states 'I much appreciate your kind thought and regret to say I am unable to accept. Much as I admire Sydney and wish him well. I am afraid the journey is to much for me to undertake from the South coast. I hope you will have good weather and the match will be a great success in every way. Signed Jack Hobbs'. Some 'light' fading to writing, file holes to left hand border otherwise in good condition - cricket

21 Samuel Moses James Woods, Somerset, England & Australia 1886-1910. Handwritten note/letter in ink from Woods thanking the correspondent for a photograph following a match against Surrey. 'Yes it was splendid beating Surrey once more and the crowd were delighted'. Signed 'Samuel'. The letter undated, but between a date range of 1891-1904. Adhesive damage to verso, small tape repair, otherwise G. Sold with a postcard and three copy photographs of Woods - cricket

£60/80

22 Arthur Edward Newton. Somerset 1891-1914. Short one page handwritten letter/note on Dipford House, Trull, Taunton headed paper from Newton replying to a request for a photograph. Nicely signed by Newton, dated 12th October 1943. Sold with a single page written in Cambridge University, Somerset & M.C.C., 1927-1950.. 'Regret Coronation Day impossible, but can offer a very good substitute, W. Holmes c/o me'. Signed and dated 4th May 1937. Sold with a mono 'Sport & General' press photograph of Meyer in cricket attire at Lord's in 1938. G/VG - cricket

£40/60

24 Leigh Dunlop Brownlee. Gloucestershire and Somerset 1901-1909. Four page folding handwritten letter, on 'The Cot, St Michael's, Bristol' letterhead from Brownlee to noted cricket collector Charles Pratt Green, the letter dated 14th August 1904, 'I am coming up to Worcester on Thursday next and shall hope to see you on Friday. I was unable to play against them ... owing to a bad ankle, which I wrenched rather painfully on the last day of the Kent match. I was sorry not to see you at Worcester when Oxford were there, but as the fixture was only arranged a day or so before, I had no means of letting you know. Many thanks for catalogue of bats- it is most interesting'. Very nicely signed 'Leigh D. Brownlee'. Folds otherwise in very good condition - cricket

£80/120

25 John Cornish White. Somerset & England 1909-1937. One page war-time handwritten letter from White to an autograph collector 'I cannot give you the address of any member of the Somerset County Cricket Team at present, I do not know where they are, due to war conditions... I hope we may soon see County cricket again'. Signed by White and dated 15th October 1943. Sold with a signed press

The letter dated 13th November 1948 and signed by Paish;'s wife 'A. Paish'. File holes to border. G - cricket £30/50
- 29 Sidney Austyn Paul Kitcat. M.C.C. & Gloucestershire 1890-1904. Two page hand written letter, on 'The Merchants Trust, Cornhill' headed notepaper, dated 5th June 1894, to Thomas Padwick, an early collector of cricketana. 'I am in receipt of your card with reference to the 'Wisdens' you have for sale and may I let you know in a few days- as I am waiting to hear from a friend who thinks he has some copies- which he can give me. Meanwhile if you would be so kind as to say what numbers you can let me have at 1/6 I shall be very much obliged. I really only want about the last ten years- but if you have earlier copies at a reasonable price and within my means- I might like to bid for them'. Nicely signed by Kitcat. - 30 Charles Lucas Townsend. Gloucestershire & England 1893-1922. Excellent two page handwritten letter from Townsend to John Arlott, dated 19th June 1948 giving his thoughts on W.G. Grace. 'For me to do justice to W.G. in a few words is impossible. You see I was one of the family and dearly loved them all, W.G. so loved his home. This much I can vouch, that all cricketers who played with him from boyhood (as my father did) to those who played with him up to the end of his life loved him as a great and sincere man. Don't begin to draw comparisons but let him remain as that great sincere simple man who gave as much pleasure to countless thousands of people during his long career. You cannot beat Lord Harris and A.J. Webbe's summing up.....'. The letter with hand written address to head, Elton Manor, Stockton On Tees, nicely signed in black ink 'C.L. Townsend'. File holes to border otherwise in good condition. Excellent cricket content. Sold with a small original sepia photograph of Townsend, in cap, wearing batting attire, at Cheltenham in 1895. The photograph laid down to card £100/150
- Charles Townsend, a sound middle order batsman and slow bowler, played 162 matches for Gloucestershire and made two appearances for England at Test match level. He created a sensation when, on leaving Clifton College in 1895 at the age of eighteen, he joined Gloucestershire and in that summer took 131 wickets making him the bowler of the season, prior to this in 1893, aged sixteen he took a hat-trick of stumpings, with the assistance of wicket-keeper William Brain, against Somerset at Cheltenham, a unique achievement which stands to this day. He played two Tests for England, against the Australians in 1899 and would have played more had his financial situation and work demands not prevented him. Barring the Graces, Gloucestershire has produced no such remarkable cricketer as* Coldham, cricket author and collector, responding to Coldham's request for information on F.S. Jackson on whom he is writing an article for 'The Journal of the Cricket Society'. Wyatt states that 'Jackson gave the impression that he was not an easy person to know. He certainly did not suffer fools gladly but I found him very friendly & charming'. He praises Jackson as an international selector, 'always ready to listen to the opinions of others with patience & understanding. He was very loyal to me when I was being given a rough ride by the cheap press without a real knowledge of the game and always looking for a sensation'. He also refers to Jackson's 'wonderful Test match record... an astute captain who never seemed to lose the toss!'. Signed 'Robert E.S. Wyatt'. G/VG - cricket £40/60

'Dear Sir, I shall have much pleasure in playing in the Gentleman's match at Lord's on Monday July 2nd and the return match at Canterbury in the August week commencing the 20th. Will you oblige me by letting me know if you wish me to play in the Kent v England at Lord's and at Canterbury - as soon as you can - as if not I have the opportunity of accepting other invitations which I ought to answer soon. Pray remember me to all friends - and to the ladies my profound devotions and...believe me as ever Yours sincerely N. Felix'. Nicely signed by Felix. A rare letter - cricket £500/800
- Nicholas Wanostrocht, 1804-1876 was also known as Felix and was one of the leading cricketers of his time. He played for both Kent and Surrey and wrote the classic cricket book 'Felix on the Bat'. He was also a well known artist*
- 60 Colin Cowdrey. One page hand typed letter from Cowdrey to John Arlott on Barclays International headed paper, dated 24th November 1980, replying to a request to attend a lunch. Signed in ink 'Colin'. G - cricket £20/30
- 61 Antony Ronald Legard. Oxford University, Worcestershire & Europeans 1932-1944. One page handwritten letter, dated 19th January 1985, regarding an autograph request and speaking in length about a match played in India at the Brabourne Stadium, India presumably for the Europeans. 'It was hot enough outside, but in the Brabourne Stadium, a huge bowl with some 25,000 spectators bellowing continuously, there was not a breath of air..... As the only recognised bowler in the side I bowled 40 overs in the first five hours and then had to retire to the pavilion with salt deficiency and a mammoth thirst'. Signed by Legard. G - cricket £30/40
- 62 Walter Ambrose Bettesworth. Sussex, 1878-1883. Original one page letter handwritten in ink from

- Bettesworth to 'Sir Theodore' (Brinckman), dated 20th March 1927 on 'The Field' headed paper. Bettesworth thanks Brinckman for 'a fascinating book, and I enjoyed every page of it. I am enclosing a few notes, as promised, which may perhaps be useful for a new edition'. A postscript read 'I also enclose "Lord Hawke"'. Minor adhesive marks to verso, otherwise in good condition - cricket £60/90
- Bettesworth, author and journalist, was cricket editor of 'The Field' from 1908 to 1928. Sir Theodore Brinckman, 4th Baronet, played regularly for M.C.C. and took an English team to South America in 1937/38*
- 63 John Maurice Coldham. Minor Counties & Oxford University, 1924-1925. Single page typed letter to 'Bob', dated 1st February 1977. Coldham is replying to an enquiry about the cricketer, Cecil Borthwick. He suggests contacting his distant cousin J.D. Coldham, 'a lynch pin in the Council of Cricket Societies'. He goes on to recount his memories of playing for Lieut-Col Hawdon's XI v Lord Hawke's XI at Scarborough in 1918 at the age of 17 with many first-class cricketers. Coldham made 11 in a stand with John Gunn of 51 in the first innings and opened the batting in the second innings scoring 24 against Hirst and Rhodes. With the match destined to be a draw, Hirst asked Coldham where he would like the last ball: 'please sir may I have a long hop outside the leg stump ... I had the unforgettable pleasure of hitting the great man for four. What a man! Wilfred would never have done that'. Coldham enjoyed the company of Denton, Kilner and Brian Sellers, Arthur's father, who came out of retirement to captain Hawke's team, having played his last match v the Australians in 1899. While enjoying the evening at the Grand Hotel, the Yorkshire players seemed to lose interest when they found that Coldham was not born in Yorkshire. Signed in ink 'Yours ever, Johnny'. G - cricket £40/60
- 64 Cyril Washbrook. Lancashire & England, 1933-1959. One page handwritten letter dated 'April 23rd' (1936), to the sports editor of the Liverpool Daily Post enclosing a copy of 'the Cyril Washbrook Cricket Annual which will be published on April 25th'. Washbrook refers to 'An article which might provide a subject of interesting comment is that of Keith Miller on page twelve'. Some creasing and tears, one affecting Washbrook's signature - cricket £30/50
- 65 Francis George 'Frank' Peach, Derbyshire scorer. Collection of eight letters sent to or received by Peach 1951-1997. Correspondents are James Hutchinson (Derbyshire 1920-1931), Leslie Townsend (1922-1939), J.D.W. Thomlinson (1 match, 1946), Alan Revill (1946-1957), and George Dawkes (1947-1961), G - cricket £50/80
- 66 Leslie Gutteridge, publisher, Epworth Press. One page typed letter to John Arlott, dated 11th November 1965. Gutteridge is congratulating Arlott following a speech given to the Cricket Society the previous day. 'I have never heard you to better advantage than last evening. The quality of this most difficult speech was quite magnificent and could not have been improved upon'. He mentions praise given by W.L. Miron of the Coal Board, and the politician, Geoffrey Rippon who were in attendance. 'Rippon said that "Birkett at his best could not have matched the felicity of the language"'. Gutteridge had recorded the speech and invites Arlott 'and one day we may allow you to hear for yourself how good you can be!'. Signed in ink 'Leslie'. G - cricket £40/60

- Lucan was President of M.C.C. in 1928. His Grandson was the notorious 7th Earl of Lucan who disappeared in strange circumstances in 1974*
- 68 William Golding. Hand written one page letter to John Arlott dated 9th November (1971?) thanking him for a book (probably 'Fred') and 'flattering inscription - that is unless the 'master hand' refers to my bowling, which might once upon a time indeed have fulfilled most of the requirements in the advertisement for a curate: low church, slow left-arm round the wicket'. Golding enjoyed the book but was 'appalled by its picture of Cricket as a mixture of warfare, total, urban, guerrilla and patriotic...'. Golding suggests that the book tends to confirm some people's view that 'Yorkshire should negotiate separately with the common market!' The letter is signed 'Ever, Bill Golding'. G/VG - cricket £250/350
- William Golding, 1911-1993, novelist, playwright and poet, Nobel prize winner, author of 'Lord of the Flies'. D.R. Allen in his biography of Arlott mentions Golding sending a copy of 'Rites of Passage' to Arlott who used to read pieces for him in his BBC poetry-producer days.*
- 69 Irving Rosenwater. Two page typed letter from Rosenwater to Neville Weston, dated 13th November 1967. Rosenwater writes about Wilfred Rhodes' 90th birthday being 'worthy of a scrapbook', comments on an article on Rhodes written by Michael Parkinson in the Sunday Times, and a radio interview given by Rhodes on BBC radio. Nicely signed in ink 'Irving'. The letter is partly laid down to page. G - cricket £30/40
- 70 J.D. Betham. Original two page letter handwritten in ink from Betham, collector and author of 'Oxford and Cambridge Cricket Scores', dated 'Feb 7th', to an unknown recipient (J.D. Colham?). Betham is replying to a request to sell autographs of University players cut from letters received by Betham. He lists thirteen players including F.H. Hollins, H.S. Altham, C.N. Bruce etc. Minor adhesive marks to verso, otherwise in good condition - cricket £70/100

- 71 Edmund Charles Blunden. One page handwritten letter in ink from Blunden to Alan Ross from the University of Hong Kong, dated 19 September 1955. Blunden has read Ross's recent essay 'End of Season', a copy sent to him by Siegfried Sassoon. He praises Ross for the quality of his writing and goes on to reminisce about his cricket experiences in the UK, mainly on watching Sussex players John Langridge and George Cox 'who should have played for England this season'. He refers to Bates (probably T.L.A. Bates) who 'was very nearly a Hobbs' and to whom Blunden kept wicket when Bates was batting. Reminisces about watching George Cox senior scoring 167* against Hampshire at Chichester in 1906 (Cox's highest score) with G Leach scoring about 89 lusty runs (actually 79). A beautifully written letter with excellent cricket content. Horizontal and vertical folds, minor foxing, otherwise in good condition - cricket £100/150
- Blunden was a First World-War poet, author of 'Cricket Country', and was a close friend of Siegfried Sassoon*
- 72 C.I.S. Wallace, collector and expert on cricket books. Six page handwritten letter in ink to Gerald Brodrigg, dated 21st February 1952, with three page typed poem 'The Origin of Cricket' and original envelope. Wallace is following up a letter from Brodrigg published in The Observer about his preparing a collection of cricket verse, and Wallace passes on to Brodrigg a selection of lesser known verses from his own scrapbook with quotations, titles and comments, some of which are underlined by Brodrigg for possible use. Horizontal and vertical folds, otherwise in good condition - cricket £100/150
- 73 P.G. Wodehouse. One page typed letter dated 3rd May 1973, to Mr Coldham with USA air mail envelope bearing Wodehouse's New York address on the verso. Wodehouse thanks Coldham for forwarding the Cricket Society Journal with an article on 'Woody' by Antony Weigall whom Wodehouse remembers well, and admires the piece on baseball for which sport Wodehouse has become a 'rabid fan'. He contrasts cricket's approach to that of baseball's habit of trading players and for having to get only three opponents out before seeing the other side bat, in contrast to his once watching Lancashire bat all day at the Oval against his team Surrey. Nicely signed in red ink by Wodehouse. G/VG - cricket £200/300
- 74 Wombwell Cricket Lovers' Society 1955-1971. South West Clubs. Six hand written and typed letters to Jack Sokell responding to requests to attend Society functions etc. Correspondents include Wilfred Wooller (Glamorgan), Harold Gimblett, (Somerset), (Somerset) and Tony Brown (Gloucestershire). All letters signed by the correspondent. G - cricket £25/35
- 75 Australia. Twenty four letters, the majority handwritten, written to Maurice Blunden 1977-2007 from Australian cricketers. Each letter nicely signed by the correspondent. Subjects covered include Brian Booth on sledging, Bill Ponsford's memories of 1926, Richie Benaud on 'Timeless' Tests and Bradman scoring 270, Bill Brown on the style of the 1938 'Baggy Green' cap etc. Other letters include replies for requests for photographs and autographs from Ray Phillips, Ben Barnett, Frank Misson, Bill Watson, Ken Archer, Jack Moroney, David Colley, George Tribe, Hunter 'Stork' Hendry, Brian Booth, etc. VG - cricket £70/100

- 128 Alec Waugh, novelist. One page handwritten note dated 7th December 1972, sent from Tangier, to Mr Coldham enclosing 'a little squib which I hope you will find lively enough for your magazine'. The 'squib' is a three page handwritten article titled 'Before and after lunch'. The light amusing piece suggests that a player's sleeping patterns should influence his position in the batting order, whether he is a morning person or an afternoon one. The same factor can influence successful nightwatchmen such as A.V. Bedser. While the top batting positions should not be lightly changed, the middle and late order batsmen could be switched according to the time of day, etc. Horizontal folds, otherwise in good/very good condition - cricket £60/90
- Alec Waugh, elder brother of the better-known Evelyn Waugh, was the first to use the epithet of the 'bible of cricket' for the Wisden Cricketers' Almanack. Waugh's article appeared in the Cricket Society Journal, autumn 1973*

Sold with two mono copy images of Winchilses. G - cricket £150/250
- George Finch, 9th Earl of Winchilsea, an important figure in the history of cricket, was born in 1752 and educated at Eton. Winchilsea was one of the prime movers in the foundation of the White Conduit Club, a club ostensibly that 'only Gentlemen' might play for, but the club did employ professionals and one of these was Thomas Lord. He, with others, persuaded Thomas Lord (a man recognised for his business acumen as well as his playing ability) to found his cricket ground and thus was amongst the founding members of the M.C.C. He was President of the Hambledon Club in 1787 and 1789 and staged matches at his country seat at Burley, Rutland. He died in 1826*

Ward' in black ink. A very rare early signature of Ward, a right handed batsman and occasional lob-bowler who played 130 first class matches and was considered for many years one of the leading batsman in England. G/VG - cricket £150/250
- William Ward was born in 1787 and educated at Winchester where he first played cricket. His first recorded match was in 1810 when he played for England against Surrey at Lord's. His greatest achievement was when playing for M.C.C. v Norfolk at Lord's in 1820 he scored 279, a record that remained unbroken until W.G. Grace made 344 in 1876. He made eighteen appearances for the Gentlemen v Players between 1819-1838. In 1825 he bought from Thomas Lord, the lease of Lord's cricket ground for five thousand pounds, when Lord was considering selling the ground for building. In 1836 J.H. Dark purchased the remainder of the lease from Ward. Ward was M.P. for the City of London between 1826-1831. He died in 1849*

He is unable, personally, to acknowledge them all, but desires you to accept this as an expression of his most grateful thanks and sincere appreciation of your thoughts'. Bradman has signed the left hand page 'Yours Sincerely Don Bradman', a lovely signature. The card laid down to album page. Unusual and rare, not seen previously by the auctioneer £100/150

- The auctioneer assumes this injury and illness refers to the 1934 tour where Bradman was unwell for much of the English summer, at the end of the tour, he experienced severe abdominal pain and was diagnosed with acute appendicitis and a surgeon operated immediately. Bradman lost a lot of blood during the four-hour procedure and peritonitis set in. Penicillin and sulphonamides were still experimental treatments at this time, peritonitis was usually a fatal condition. On 25 September, the hospital issued a statement that Bradman was struggling for his life. Teammate, Bill O'Reilly took a call from King George V's secretary asking that the King be kept informed of the situation. Jessie Bradman started the month-long journey to London as soon as she received the news and by the time she reached London, Bradman had begun a slow recovery. He followed medical advice to convalesce, taking several months to return to Australia and missing the 1934/35 Australian season*

The report, of two full pages, includes 'This is a hand of dogged determination. The possessor never owns defeat'.... 'One of the prominent (?) features of this hand is originality. This hand will never be satisfied to play the game of 'follow my leader.... Speaking finally from the cricket standpoint- you would be better to trust to impulse and act upon it. Second thoughts or hesitation are the things to be feared. Trust yourself in all things and the flowing tide is with you'. Sold with a typed copy of the letter. G - cricket £30/50
- 361 'Cricketing Memories of Alfred Percy 'Tich' Freeman'. A file containing a collection of notes on Freeman's cricket career collected by his son from Freeman, probably during the late 1940's and early 1950's, when all the family lived on Ashford Road, Bearsted, Kent. The notes, previously unpublished as far as we know, typewritten on fifteen various sized pages of paper and divided, roughly into various headings, early life, joining Kent, first team cricket, taking 304 wickets in 1928, batting, best batsman, wicket-keepers, memorable matches he played in, captains he played under, cricket grounds he played at etc. 'Of all those famous figures I watched as a youngster, C.J. Kortright stands out above all others. He was the fastest bowler in the world....R.O. Schwarz, the South African, to whom I owe not only my first acquaintance with the googly, but to whose sound advice whatever success I have achieved is largely due.... most brilliant of the galaxy of stars at that time was probably Colin Blythe, a grand player and another to whom I can never be sufficiently grateful....1928 was without doubt my peak year. For the first time I saw my total of victims soar above the 200 mark.... Mann edged one off me to Frank Woolley in the slips. Needless to say, Frank made no mistake and I had done it (broken the wickets in a season record)...I secured six wickets in the match and so finished the season with an aggregate of 304 at an average of 18.05. What a season it had been for me.....no wonder I felt a little proud but very tired...When my career did end I had not secured more wickets than I had scored runs but there was not a great number in it. 3776 wickets- 4961 runs!...A likeable man - a great player and a good skipper- that was Percy Chapman...' Some handwritten annotation to the notes. The notes typewritten in a small typeface and a more readable copy of the notes is included with the file to aid the reading of them. In addition there is a full listing with dates of all 'The Cricketing Freeman's' from Abraham George Freeman 1858-1936 to William Bill Reeves 1876-1944 (ten in total). An interesting read - cricket £100/150

- 423 'The Irish Cricketers in the United States 1879. By One of Them'. Henry Brougham. John Lawrence, Dublin, and M.H. Gill, London, 1880. An excellent account of the tour of the Gentlemen of All Ireland, the cricket well reported and liberally interspersed with typically Irish social matters including a fifteen-stanza poem/song in limerick form titled 'The Ould Leather Breeches' given by Brougham to 'lift us from this state of morbid mutual appreciation' after post-dinner speeches. The signature of ownership on the half-title page is of one of the touring party, 'Arthur R.F. Exham, May 1880'. He is described in the book as 'a slow bowler and one of two main bowlers and a capital bat'. Other members of the touring party included Nathaniel Hone (captain), Charles Barrington, brother of the Lord Mayor of Dublin, Sir George Colthurst, and Hugh Gore. The majority of the side was drawn from members of the famous Phoenix Club in Dublin. As an appendix, there are two colourful contemporary reports of the players and their deeds, one from the New York Herald of September 12th, 1879, the other from the New York Daily Courier, September 18th, 1879. - JOHNNY WARDLE CRICKET COLLECTION
- John Henry Wardle. Yorkshire & England 1946-1958. Johnny Wardle was an English spin bowler of post-war cricket. His Test bowling average of 20.39 is the lowest in Test cricket by any recognised spin bowler, since the First World War. He took 100 wickets in a season on 10 occasions and his best bowling analysis in an innings was 9-25 for Yorkshire v Lancashire in 1954. He toured with M.C.C. touring sides on four occasions and was selected for the M.C.C. tour to Australia in 1958/59, but the invitation was withdrawn following him writing outspoken newspaper articles. This virtually ended his first class cricket career, he was dismissed by Yorkshire. Consequently, Wardle played the rest of his cricket as a professional in the Lancashire League for Nelson and Rishton, and until 1969 with Cambridgeshire in the Minor Counties Championship. He died in 1985 at the age of 62*

- EPHEMERA FROM THE CRICKET COLLECTION OF SIR LEONARD HUTTON
- 628 'The Job of Being Captain'. Len Hutton. Original four page typed manuscript by Hutton for an article in the Boys Annual, date unknown. The article covers the subject of captaincy and the importance and honour of the role, 'It is more than an honour. It is a task of great responsibility... a captain, in effect, holds in trust the cricket tradition of his school or club or county or country'. Hutton refers to Yorkshire's 'great tradition of sound captaincy, including Lord Hawke, Chichester-Constable, under whom Hutton played when captain of the Yorkshire 2nd XI, Brian Sellars, 'one of the greatest captains English county cricket has seen', and Norman Yardley, 'so I had a pretty good upbringing in the requirements of cricket captaincy'. He continues by describing the qualities and personality required, 'He must be able to lead. He must think ahead... He must be cheerful, optimistic, yet firm when an element of discipline is required. That does not mean being excessively bossy on the field'. Regarding tactics Hutton states 'The good captain always thinks out his batting order long before he gets to the ground... Usually the best and soundest batsmen should open... [but] never be afraid to switch the order to get more runs quickly if they are needed... He should have a clear idea of the general field settings for his various bowlers... to study each batsman, note his best strokes and his weakest'. Regarding bowlers, 'However well any bowler is bowling never tire him out. Rest him so that he can come back again'. Hutton concludes with the importance of seeking advice from experienced players, attacking a new batsman, the best position to field, and the need to 'insist on the highest level of sportsmanship at all times... and set the right example - even down to the elementary thing of seeing that his shoes are well studded, his bat well cared for and his flannels and shirt well pressed'. An intriguing insight into Hutton's approach to captaincy. Some annotations and corrections apparently in Hutton's own hand. G/VG - cricket £200/300
- 629 'The Captain's Job'. Len Hutton. Original ten page typed manuscript by Hutton for an article, date and publication unknown. Hutton opens with an anecdote, 'When I returned to the pavilion at Lord's, bowled for a "duck" in my first Test match, I thought I had lost my place in England's team for good. An unsympathetic remark from my captain at that moment might have shattered my confidence for many matches to come. But what R.W.V. Robins said to me was "For goodness' sake, Len, don't do that against the Aussies next year!". It was a shrewd and understanding action on the part of my skipper... it taught me the value of a captain who has studied the character and capabilities of each man in his team'. Hutton then describes captains he has played under or who influenced his career. Captain Chichester-Constable led the Yorkshire Second XI 'when I played in the Minor Counties Championship at the age of seventeen' and describes the respect in which he was held and the team spirit, from which he learned 'it is better to have a lion at the head of an army of sheep, than a sheep at the head of an army of lions'. On having earned his place in the Yorkshire county side, Hutton 'had the advantage of the skilful leadership and the personal encouragement of Brian Sellars'. He describes Sellars's inability to win the toss, 'in one season alone... he lost the toss thirteen times in succession' and recounts Pelham Warner's description of Stanley Jackson as 'Jacker was a good tosser'. Warner's own captaincy is described as that of "The General", 'he led his teams "into battle" and inspired them by personal example'. Wally Hammond 'was a leader in the same mould'. Hutton continues with the advice on the need to practice 'to improve your own ability', wicket inspection, assessment of the opposition, the decision whether to bat or bowl first, batting order, declarations, how to bowl and set fields, in particular to a new batsman etc. Regarding decision making Hutton states 'Be the boss. Take a firm line with slackers... before giving a decision, don't neglect to consult your bowlers, your wicket-keeper, and other experienced members of the team'. Regarding the suitability of different types of players to captaincy he says, 'in many respects the man behind the stumps is in an ideal position to captain a side himself, although for some reason wicket-keeper captains are a rarity... a specialist bowler is not in a good position to act a skipper, because he is often doubtful as to when to put himself on to bowl and when to take himself off... Yet I have known many fine bowler-captains whose judgement in this respect could not be criticised. The article closes with Hutton's opinion on sportsmanship including appealing, 'Only the wicket-keeper or bowler is really in a position to judge whether a batsman can be given out L.B.W., for instance, and they are the only ones who should be allowed to appeal'.

630 'L. Hutton - Cricket Broadcast'. Original four page typed manuscript by Hutton for a broadcast, date unknown, possibly 1950. Written in the spring with a new season impending, Hutton describes how 'during the next three weeks youngsters will be having their first trials at the Yorkshire County Nets at Headingley' and his memories of his childhood, 'The only times we handled a real leather ball was during a match when the batsmen hit a boundary and we chased after the ball, what a scramble it was to hold it and gaze at this real leather cricket ball for a few moments before returning it to the fieldsman. Due to the many windows in the close vicinity we were only allowed a rubber or tennis ball, nevertheless much of my pocket money was spent on having broken windows replaced'. He continues by describing the batting grip and stance he employed '[as] used by Don Bradman, Walter Hammond, Maurice Leyland, and many other first class players', and while the position of the right hand 'is very nearly the same with all batsmen the left hand varies', quoting Bill Edrich and Denis Compton as examples. Hutton describes his heroes as Herbert Sutcliffe, Jack Hobbs, and 'In my early days at the nets under the watchful eye of George Hirst who loved to have boys around him' and how Hirst would relate stories of W.G. Grace, Victor Trumper and others while travelling on the tram to Leeds. Hutton looks forward to the visit of the West Indian tourists and 'the improvement in West Indian cricket during the last twenty years... due largely I think to the inspiration of Headly [sic] and Constantine, two of the greatest players the game has yet seen' and refers to the quality of Everton Weekes, Frank Worrell, Clyde Walcott, their 'battery of three fast bowlers with the pace of Lindwall' and the captain John Goddard. Hutton closes with the advice 'To those of you in authority particularly amongst schoolboys... to provide good practice and match wickets, and to you who use them don't be afraid to help with the rolling...'. G/VG - cricket £200/300

Goddard captained the West Indies on two tours to England, in 1950 and 1957
