Some staining and creasing, otherwise in good condition £30/50	legs sweeping on 98 etc. At the end of play, Pakistan were 317/2, Zaheer 151no. Arlott's report on day two describes the continuation of the Pakistan innings, ending 600/7 declared, 'an impregnable position', England losing the wicket of Lloyd for 4 to end the day 15/1, 585 runs behind. He also reports on the anticipated appointment of Denness as Captain and Alec Bedser as Manager for the forthcoming tour to Australia and New Zealand, 'Denness has not lost a series'. Day three continued with England finishing on 293/4 (Amiss 168no, Fletcher 12no) with Pakistan's 'chance of forcing a win... slimmer than England's making a draw', the wicket still playing slow, 'It was a batsman's day, and Amiss was the batsman'. On day 4, 'Assisted by a rain, a delayed start and a slow pitch, England plodded on towards drawing the third Test'. Amiss played and missed at a bouncer from Sarfraz which 'hit him on the right cheek' forcing him to retire for the day. England finished on 438/6. On the final day Arlott describes the pitch has having 'simply become more lifeless as the match went on... this [pitch] simply denied the merits of cricket, distorting the play so far in favour of the batsmen that no honest finish was ever possible'. The remainder of the article relates to the selection for the forthcoming winter tour. The match ended in the expected draw, England all out for 545, Pakistan 94/4 at close of play. Handwritten alterations and deletions in Arlott's hand. G £140/180	records, some wear and staining to cover, otherwise in good condition £40/60

Christie & Berne, Solicitors of Sydney' headed paper and dated 7th October 1931 to a Mr Swabey with good cricket content, the letter reads '...It is very gratifying to find that I am not altogether forgotten in England. As you say I am to be congratulated on being in good health after so many years- as a matter of fact Jack Blackham and I are the only survivors of the first Australian XI and Jack is still well and just as interested in cricket as the youngest- although he is four years older than me- I enclose an autograph as you request'. Nicely signed 'your sincerely T.W. Garrett'. Light folds otherwise in very good condition. A rare letter from a member of the first Australian touring party to England £250/250

Tom Garrett is listed as player/cap number four in the list of Australian Test players and played in nineteen Test matches for Australia and toured England on three occasions, 1878, 1882 and 1886. His most successful tour being the 1882 series where he took 118 wickets at 14.35 in first class matches. He played in the first Test match played in Melbourne, Australia in March 1877

60 Walter Brearley. Lancashire, London County & England, 1902-1912. One page handwritten letter on 'Euston Hotel, London' headed paper and dated 7th June 1931 to a Mr Swabey with good cricket content, the typically forthright letter reads 'Thank you for your letter. I quite agree with you re the present cricketers, they are a poor lot, bar about 7 or 8. What we want are more amateurs'. Nicely signed 'yours very truly, Walter Brearley'. Light folds otherwise in very good condition £100/150

Walter Brearley was the epitome of the explosive fast bowler. His first class cricket career was marred by continual quarrels with the Lancashire committee. He refused to play for the majority of 1906 and all of 1907 and the final break came at the end of the 1911 season. He then played for Cheshire in 1912 whilst playing Test cricket for England

61 Charles Jesse Kortwright. Essex 1894-1907. Handwritten four page letter from his home in Brentwood to a Mr Swabey, dated 28th May 1931 with excellent cricket content, relating to fast bowling and fast bowlers. Kortwright states 'It is indeed very flattering to read your eulogies with regard to my so called fast bowling in the 90's of last century, but one was very little thought of in those years when there was a regular glut of fast (real fast) bowlers in this country when every county had one, if not two, really fast bowlers in the side, anyone of whom in these days would have walked into any England side, almost as first choice. To my mind you have left out of your list two of the greatest fast bowlers.....They were Tom Richardson and Bill Lockwood, both of Surrey and not many 'pukka'; batsman of those days fancied themselves overmuch with those two bowling. T.R. was always my model as a fast bowler, and in later years, Walter Brearley of Lancashire came second. I have always placed these two, in their different styles, as my numbers 1 & 2..... It was quite a common occurrence for both of them to right bang through a side with 7 or 8 wickets in his bag.....no bowling short at a batsman's ribs with half a dozen fieldsman clustering close around on the leg side like flies around the top of a jam-pot. No! we used to hear the 'death rattle' much more frequently in those days when a stump went hurtling...'. Nicely signed 'Yours sincerely, Charles J. Kortwright. A rare Kortwright item. VG £130/160

Kortwright was regarded as the fastest bowler of his day, and by some the fastest ever to appear in first-class cricket

62 John William Hitch. Surrey & England 1907-1925. Handwritten two page letter from Sherbourne Dorset to a Master Swabey, dated 9th December 1931 regarding a request for an autograph. Hitch states '....it is very nice to hear from some-one so keen a follower of my county, and I hope that one day if you are taking up the game that you may play for your county and country. I enclose 2 autographs for you'. Nicely signed 'Yours faithfully, J.W. Hitch. VG £50/70

Leonard 'Len' Hutton. Yorkshire & England 1934-1955. Single page handwritten letter in ink from Hutton to a Mr. Parkin, dated in pencil '17/1/83'. Hutton is responding to an enquiry about his first cap. 'I received my County cap at Bradford in 1936. There was nothing special about the occasion, just handed to me in the dressing room. I was very pleased of course, it all came as a surprise to me'. Signed 'Len Hutton'. Horizontal and vertical folds, otherwise in good condition £30/50

64 Glamorgan C.C.C. 1889. Four handwritten letters written to W.L. Yorath, Secretary of the newly formed County Club, in response to a recruitment drive for players. Two letters written by W.H. Gwynn of the Ffynone Club, Swansea, refer to players such as 'F. Morris (wicket keeper last season for Malvern College) - a very good bat... F. Hill - a fair all round cricketer... Willie Bancroft made 24 against Llanelli in capital style for a lad... Walter Shepherd... his ability as a wicket keeper is well known by you...' and a further postcard regarding a donation to Club funds. Also a letter to Yorath from T.R. Griffiths accepting an invitation to play 'for the XVIII if the Committee of the County Club think fit to select me'. Previously sold in the Dreweatts sale of the archives of Glamorgan C.C.C. in 2010. File holes to all four letters, otherwise in good condition £60/90

Glamorgan County Cricket Club was founded in 1888 and initially struggled to attract players and funding. However the Club was awarded minor county status in 1897, first class status in 1921, and first won the County Championship in 1948

65 John Arlott. Single page typed airmail letter from Arlott to Leslie Gutteridge at the University of Alberta, Canada, dated 22nd December 1979. Arlott is referring to having sold much of his cricket collection and his impending retirement, 'all but Wisden, S. & B. and a few personal items. I sold it well, as they say, and hope, as a result, to be able to retire after the end of the coming season. If I have the luck to buy the house in Alderney... I shall retire there'. Nicely signed in black ink by Arlott. G £30/50

66 F.S. Ashley-Cooper. Two page handwritten letter in ink from Ashley-Cooper to J.M. Davis, Australian journalist and author, dated 4th April 1927. Ashley-Cooper thanks Davis for his kind remarks in the 'Referee' of February 23rd, 'It made me blush and caused several people in Australia to send me their sympathy. I am thankful to say that I have now quite recovered'. Since returning from the nursing home he describes writing for the 'Spring Annual' and compiling a New Zealand Cricket Guide. Regarding his collection he reports on the installation of new shelving and '96 more spring-back cases for the numerous small handbooks, guides etc. Collecting is a glorious hobby and I have made a few very good "finds" since you were here'. He closes by looking forward to the New Zealand tour. Nicely signed by Ashley-Cooper. Horizontal and vertical folds, staple holes to top left corners, otherwise in good condition £80/120

Raymond Charles Robertson-Glasgow. Oxford University & Somerset 1920-1935. Two page handwritten letter in ink, dated 1st March 1946, to Mr. Coldham thanking him for 'your very much appreciated letter. Every writer (?) likes his/her work to be liked. If he/she says he/she doesn't, he/she is a liar(ess)!! He reports that a third edition of 'Cricket Prints' is due to be published, 'Also I have nearly collected the bundle for Vol II'. Regarding 'cricket reformers', he states, 'some of them mean well, a few of them, a very few, know what they are meaning, but they all... miss the point, that cricket, or any game, is what the players (and the crowd) make it. Legislation means little'. Neatly signed by Robertson-Glasgow. G £40/60

Denys Rowbotham, cricket journalist. Four page handwritten letter from his home in Cheshire, 'as from The Guardian, Cross Street, Manchester'.

The letter is undated, but probably early 1964. Rowbotham is replying to a reader who had written in response to an article in which Rowbotham had expressed views about England Captains past and present. Rowbotham's comments relate mainly to Colin Cowdrey, 'whom I love dearly as a quiet, modest, charming person... my views about his captaincy bear no relation to my views of him as a man, except that I think he is too modest altogether to be the masterful driving force he should be as a batsman... similarly as captain it is against his nature to be a driver or ruthless with his men'. Rowbotham also comments on Cowdrey's use of modern theories, but 'like [Peter] May... he is not quick to adapt or reject preconceived notions if these are not working out'. Regarding other England captains, he admires 'Close's field tactics', Dexter's 'erratic leadership in Australia' and 'I did not write Dexter off for political reasons', M.J.K. Smith's appointment, Stewart's 'undoubted promise' etc. A very interesting letter from a leading correspondent of the time. G £50/80

70

John Frank Eden 'Jack' Santall. Worcestershire 1930. Two page handwritten letter in ink to Mr. Gibson dated 19th May 1971. Santall is replying to a letter thanking Gibson for returning his father's books (Sydney Santall, Warwickshire & London County 1894-1914), and for the draft of an article regarding Sydney's bowling achievements in school cricket, suggesting an amendment to say that 'at one stage [Santall's] figures were 200w for 400 R's'. He also looks forward to seeing Gibson at Swanage. Nicely signed 'Jack Santall'. Horizontal folds, otherwise in good condition £30/50

71

Philip A. Snow, cricket author. Two page typed letter with handwritten annotations and corrections in Snow's hand. The letter to J.D. Coldham, Editor of the Journal of the Cricket Society, on 'Philip A. Snow' letterhead is dated 8th August 1980. Snow, who was the author of 'Cricket in the Fiji Islands' is writing suggesting material for an article on the then first known postage stamp featuring cricket, 'a 2d. one, first issued in 1942 in Fiji'. He describes the stamp that depicts Albert Park where cricket was played with historical information on cricket in Fiji. He describes visits from the Australians and West Indies, and the longest hit at the ground by Trumper in 1905. Snow closes by giving details of his own career including Captain of Leicestershire 2nd XI, founder of the Suva Cricket Association in 1940, founder of the Fiji Cricket Association in 1946, Captain of the first Representative Fiji team touring overseas (to New Zealand in 1949) etc. Signed in ink 'Philip Snow' Horizontal folds, otherwise in good condition £50/70

72

J.M. Barrie. Author of Peter Pan and the Founder of the Allahakbarries C.C. Hand written single page letter to 'Mr Shelton' (Secretary of Nottinghamshire C.C.C.), dated 30th May 1932, thanking him for sending a copy of a Yearbook and apologising for his delay. 'Sir Home Gordon [editor of the Nottinghamshire yearbook 1932-1934] ... has made me feel that I was once again back on Trent Bridge ground (in a boat no doubt)'. Barrie sends his best wishes to the Club 'to whose doings I always turn first in the cricketing news'. Complete with the original envelope. A rare cricket related letter from Barrie. VG £140/160

Barrie formerly worked in Nottingham

- 75 William Lloyd 'Billy' Murdoch. News South Wales, Sussex, London County & England 1875-1904. Two page handwritten letter in black ink to 'Old Dick', dated 15th January 1904. Murdoch is writing to acknowledge that 'I am sorry you could not manage what I asked and am quite sure you would if you could... I would be very sorry to think old man that my asking and you refusing would in any way interfere with our friendship... for I am quite sure neither of us are built that way'. Presumably referring to W.G. Grace, Murdoch states, 'I hope you had a rare old battle with the Old Man. I expect I will run across him one of these days'. Nicely signed by Murdoch. Horizontal fold and small split to spine, otherwise in good condition

- 76 Nawab of Pataudi. Oxford University, Worcestershire, England & India 1928-1948. Two page handwritten letter in ink from Pataudi to John Arlott, dated 26th May 1947. Pataudi is writing from India in the midst of the turmoil of partition. 'Thanks for your letter & your delightful little book the publishers have sent me. You obviously enjoyed being with the team and I assure you we loved having you with us. Last year's cricket was a holiday for me. After years of toil I had deserved a holiday. I am again plunged in the affairs of State with little hope of escape. The whole atmosphere is bloody and the future uncertain. India is going through sad times & we are all unhappy. I hope you are fit and well & still hoping to find Hampshire in the upper half of the Championship Table'. Nicely signed 'Pataudi'. Sold with two mono press photographs of Pataudi in batting poses, a small mono photograph of Pataudi with Frank Woolley etc. G/VG
£130/160

- 77 Henry Knollys Foster. Oxford University & Worcestershire 1894-1925. Two page handwritten letter in ink from Foster to Charles Pratt

Green. The letter on H.K. Foster & Grace of Hereford letterhead, dated 2nd April 1931. Foster is writing regarding an invitation to attend a dinner with Green. 'My reason for accepting your kind invitation to the Lodge was to have the pleasure of sitting next to you afterwards & now I am most peeved that you cannot partake of the dinner. Quite candidly & honestly my evening would be certainly spoilt & I would far sooner spend two hours with you on the College ground. Unless therefore we are both committed to my attendance at the Lodge may I be allowed to withdraw...'. Signed 'H.K. Foster'. Horizontal and vertical folds, otherwise in good condition.

- 78 Paul Foley. Worcestershire C.C.C. Two page handwritten letter in ink from Foley to Charles Pratt Green. The letter is undated, the accompanying envelope is postmarked 21st May 1899. Interesting content regarding Worcestershire County Cricket Club business relating to prints given by Pratt Green. Foley writes, 'On behalf of the County Club I beg to thank you most heartily for your very handsome present of prints. The Vanity Fair cartoons would be very interesting. We have put up our various group photographs & they are framed in plain flat oak frames. I think each cartoon would look best separate. We also can hang the Kent & Sussex match on the end wall of the dining room where it would look very well & have ample space. In regards cards the position is they are printed by a man hired by the Club for the day on a machine belonging to me & so not a first class one or adapted to the elaborate ones printed by other companies. When we have more funds we can buy a proper machine & have them well done but at present we have laid so much out on pavilions, fences, seats etc we cannot afford it & must do what we can with our present tools. With many & best thanks'. Signed 'P. Foley' with a postscript, 'Shall you be in at London County match? If so we might settle where to hang the prints'. G/VG
£70/100

Paul Foley served as Secretary and Treasurer of Worcestershire Cricket

Club until his retirement in 1909 and was instrumental in establishing the Minor Counties Championship and the subsequent admission of the Club to the first-class County Championship in 1899

- 79 Frank Chester. Worcestershire 1912-1914. Single page handwritten Forces Letter from Chester to J.D. Coldham while Coldham was on military service abroad, dated 7th May 1946. Chester writes that he is 'making a start again as an umpire on Wed. at Lord's, Middlesex v Leicester after six years, but I am afraid we shall be very hard hit for good bowlers in England for some time to come, losing Verity & Farnes has been a big loss. We suffered the same after the last War but no doubt we shall find some good bowlers in due time'. Chester invites Coldham to join him at matches in which he will be umpiring in the coming season and looks forward to the Indians' tour to England, 'They are a good side, they will be sure to give us a good run'. Signed 'Frank Chester'. G £60/90

Chester lost an arm below the elbow in the first World War. He became a top first class umpire in 1922 standing in 48 Tests until his retirement in 1955

- 80 Wilfrid Lionel Foster. Worcestershire 1899-1911. Two page handwritten letter from Foster to J.D. Coldham dated 25th February 1947 containing good post war content relating to the state of the game, recollections of past players, the quality of the Australians etc. Foster writes, 'The wicket is pretty bad at the present time but we don't seem to have a Captain with high class bowlers to take advantage of it!! I speak figuratively. As for cricket I find it difficult to take overmuch interest in it these days. The drawn out games in Australia, 4 or 5 fielders within a few yards of the batsman and endless criticism and reports in the Press are not helping the game from my way of thinking. Most of our old Worcestershire stalwarts have departed this life - Arnold, Burrows, Bowley, my brothers R.E. & M.K. and scores of others who played for England and the various counties early this century. Bradman, I thought the best batsman I have ever seen except on a really sticky wicket. I think W.G. Grace would have played the best spin bowlers on any wicket better than most. The Australians now are better all round than those we can produce. Bowling is our weak point. I am not bowled out yet but Anno Domini threatens'. Nicely signed 'W.L. Foster'. VG £100/150

81	Frederick Lloyd Bowley. Worcestershire 1899-1923. Single page handwritten letter to 'Mr. Milne' dated 8th March 1935. Bowley is writing to thank Milne for sending some tickets. Nicely signed 'Fred L. Bowley'. Sold with a two page handwritten letter, also to Milne, from Bowley's wife dated 14th October 1943, five months after Bowley's death. She notes that 'It seemed so strange that he should have, for the first time, written of his "cricket" ... and left us so soon afterwards'. Qty 2. G/VG £50/70
82	Maurice James Carrick Allom. Cambridge University, Surrey & England 1926-1937. Single page typed letter dated 23rd December 1968 from Allom to the cricket historian J.D. Coldham. 83	Frederick Richard Brown. Cambridge University, Surrey, Northamptonshire & England 1930-1953. Single page handwritten letter dated 1st November 1972 from Brown to the cricket historian J.D. Coldham. Brown is writing to thank Coldham 'for the Journal of the Cricket Society & I would like to thank you on an excellent publication'. Signed 'F.R. Brown'. Sold with a mono photograph of Brown in bowling pose, and a colour postcard of 'Festival Cricket at Scarborough', both signed in ink by Brown etc. G £30/50
84	Bryan Herbert Valentine. Kent, Cambridge University & England 1927-1948. Single page handwritten letter in ink from Valentine to 'Norman', dated 16th January 1945. Valentine is replying to a request to sign some cigarette cards, and has
85	also signed the letter five times. Poignantly, he writes, 'I'm afraid that owing to the war I've lost touch with other Kent players but the manager of the Club might let you have them'. Nice signatures. G £40/60
86	Kenneth McAlpine. Kent 1885-1886. Sold with an original telegram sent from George Marsham (Kent 1876-1877, three matches) at Canterbury Cricket Ground to McAlpine, dated 6th August 1883. 'M.C.C. two hundred and fifty for seven wickets', which refers to Kent v M.C.C., Canterbury, 6th-8th August 1883. Adhesive marks and ageing. Also a telegram sent from 'Manchester Cricket Ground' dated 18th June 1886, 'Hearty Congratulations on Kenneth's innings from president and members Kent Eleven'. The telegram laid to card. Sold with a handwritten card in ink from McAlpine regarding the score for 'Mote v M.C.C. played July 6 & 7 1889 as requested'. The card is dated 13th March 1893 and signed by McAlpine. G £50/80
87	No record can be found regarding McAlpine's 'innings'. He played only four first class matches with a career top score of ten runs, however he was a prominent administrator and talent spotter in the game, serving as Secretary of Mote Cricket Club, Maidstone, and was President of Kent C.C.C. in 1922
88	Alfred Richard 'Alf' Gover. Surrey & England 1928-1947. Single page typed letter on 'The Gover Cricket School' official letterhead, dated 2nd November 1987. Gover is replying to a request for bowling tips. 'Always attack the batsman, do not take too big a leap at the wicket but make sure you land with the weight back on the right leg at the crease. If you are bowling at defensive batsmen have one or two fielders close up to the wicket'. Nicely signed in ink by Gover. Sold with a small mono press photograph of Gover in bowling action, and a Player's 'Cricketers 1938' cigarette card of Gover. G £25/35
89	Lyttelton was President of M.C.C. in 1898. Also played for Worcestershire C.C.C. (not first class) and represented England at football in 1877 and played for Old Etonians in the 1876 F.A. Cup Final. Lawyer &amp; Statesman and Colonial Secretary 1903-1905. He became an M.P. in later life
90	Hon Alfred Lyttelton. Cambridge University, Middlesex and England 1876-1887. Two page handwritten letter dated 29th January 1897 to 'James Slater'. Lyttelton is writing to apologise for being able to attend a function. Nicely signed in ink 'Alfred Lyttelton'. Light folds, minor adhesive marks to top corners, otherwise in good condition £150/250
91	Francis Thompson. Poet. Two page handwritten letter in ink from Thompson to Edward Meynell his future biographer. The letter undated but the accompanying envelope is postmarked 14th August 1901. 'Would you and could you join two or three of us to a quiet game of cricket tomorrow?... It is only a bit of quiet practice, for amusement's sake; no match.' He continues by giving arrangements for meeting and describes the facilities at the Elgin Avenue ground, 'You will find a very decent ground with net and all necessities including lemonade and Kola if you like to purchase them'. He also describes a game in which he recently played, 'my first for over eighteen years from which I am still somewhat sore and stiff... Bryant was dead on the stumps - my personal and fleshy stumps - which he peppered freely finishing with a trimmer on the kneecap (causing it to swell) and a beautiful ball on my left temple which cannoned off a yard or two behind the wicket. My hat saved me. Bryant thought I was hurt, till I reassured him by a bad joke'. Signed 'F.B.'. Sold with a typed transcript of Thompson's poem, 'Wake for the Ruddy Ball Has taken Flight'. A very rare example of a cricket related letter from Thompson. Some staining, otherwise in good condition

Robert Arthur Thoms. First-class umpire 1826-1903. Undated two page handwritten note in ink in which Thoms makes observations about the introduction of white coats for umpires. "When I call to mind that the most brilliant exhibitions of batting and sterling defence that I have witnessed have been made at the time when "Umpires" were not decked with white coats, makes me come to the conclusion that the game would have flourished equally as well without this supposed adventitious aid to the batsmen - and I am quite sure that "W.G" and others... who originally performed without this adjunct... will be of the same opinion. I well recollect the first time I came across the white coats was at Scarborough... when my brother umpire brought out a couple of them and I chaffingly remarked for what are these for to keep us warm. No! he replied, they are to help the batsman to see better. See better I replied, well I have just lately watched Jupp in for two days and that is long enough for me - and he thought so too - and we did not wear them'. Thoms also writes of 'when England first met Australia at the "Oval" in 1880, the most historical and momentous match that was ever played or ever will be'. He recalls the brilliant batting of 'Lord Harris, "W.G.", Freddie Grace, A.P. Lucas, A.G. Steele, Barnes, Willie Murdoch and Percy McDonnell... and Prince Ranjitsinhji'. An excellent first hand recollection. Some creasing, otherwise in good condition

£150/250

Robert Arthur "Bob" Thoms (1826-1903) was a first-class cricket umpire who stood in two Test Matches, the first two played in England, in 1880 and 1882. His long umpiring career in first-class matches lasted from 1863 to 1900. When he died, The Times said that he was "the most famous umpire the game has known". He played in three first-class matches in the period 1850-1851: one for an Under 36 XI, one for Marylebone Cricket Club and Metropolitan Clubs and one for the All England Eleven. His umpiring partner in many of the more prominent matches was R.P. Carpenter

Cyril Washbrook. Lancashire & England 1933-1959. Two page handwritten letter in ink to 'Morgyn' dated 20th August 1978, written at Old Trafford. Morgyn had written while recovering from being knocked down by a car, requesting a photograph. Washbrook replies, 'I regret that I am unable to produce a photograph. Over the years there have been so many requests for these things that I have no more available'. Nicely signed 'Cyril Washbrook'. G £30/40

Evelyn Rockley Wilson. Cambridge University, Yorkshire & England 1899-1923. Four page handwritten letter in ink from Wilson to the cricket writer, G.N. Weston, dated 6th October 1943. Wilson is writing requesting information about 'Fred Lillywhite's Cricket Guides. You have Rev R.S. Holmes' set & I have just been reading with great interest what you wrote on the subject in "Willow Leaves".' Regarding his own set of Guides, he states that 'mine is not perfect, as the 6th Edition is in Manuscript. Mr Padwick of Redhill, one of the best known Collectors of Cricket Literature in the 90's... borrowed a copy & copied it out word for word. I bought his set from his son in law Mr J.F. Macpherson for 15 guineas in 1922. He also refers to one copy, autographed by R.S. Holmes, which previously belonged to Charles Box, editor of "The Field", and refers to Ashley-Cooper's interview in "Cricket" with Holmes. Wilson goes into great detail on the differences between the many editions and that 'my brother has a better set than I have, which he has collected himself. He has a genuine 6th edition, and has a perfect set.' A fascinating contribution to cricket bibliography. G/VG £150/250

- 114 William Lambert. Surrey, Kent, Sussex & Hampshire 1801-1817. Oxfordshire Cricket Club 1849. Original and unique printed admission ticket presumably for a social event/function held by the Club in 1849. The card features an attractive mono engraving of a cricketer wearing period cricket attire, leaning on a bat and holding a ball standing next to the wicket, with a marquee and trees in the background. The surrounding oval border incorporates the printed title 'Oxfordshire Cricket Club' with 'Tuesday 1849 Nov'r 6th' annotated in ink in Lambert's hand, and has been signed to the lower corners in ink by William Lambert and one other, possibly W.T. Lowndes. The card, measuring 3" x 4.5", is laid to a large photograph album page with decorative borders which has an annotation in pencil in John Arlott's hand, 'Admission ticket (Signed by Wm. Lambert)'. The ticket was reproduced for the frontispiece for Neville Cardus and John Arlott's book 'The Noblest Game. A Book of Fine Cricket Prints' first published in 1969. The admission ticket previously sold by Christies in 1997. Minor wear to the album page, the card ticket in very good condition. A very rare and important piece of early cricket ephemera from the early development of the game, signed by a famous cricketer of the time

In Roger Hancock's 'A Handbook for William Lambert's Cricketer's Guide' he writes that Lambert 'was regarded at one time as the best batsman in England' and 'such was Lambert's fame, even as late as 1840, that his inability to play for Reigate at Brighton proved a great disappointment to the spectators'. Lambert's Guides ran from 1816 to the 1830s.

One of the best all-round cricketers, Lambert is the first player recorded to have scored two centuries in both innings of an important match, while playing for Sussex against Epsom at Lord's in 1817. This was to be his last appearance at Lord's as he was soon after banned for match fixing in the Nottingham v England match of that year. Despite playing as a professional, he appeared for the Gentlemen in the first two Gentlemen v Players matches in 1806

115 Scrapbook of William Archibald Standish (1856-1942). Original and attractively bound scrapbook for the period 1876-1900, comprising theatre programmes, cricket fixture cards, photographs, cuttings, manuscript for a speech, photographs, letters etc. Fixture cards for teams for whom Standish played include Priory Park 1888, Linden C.C. 1889, Rushey Green C.C. 1890-1894, West Albion C.C. 1879, Catford 1895, 1896 etc. The majority of the cards have been annotated with the results and scores and are loosely inserted. Press cuttings relate to theatre reviews and matches in which Standish played, including one showing Standish scoring 101 for Bushey Green v Colombia in 1893. One cutting shows the averages for Rushey Green for 1893 in which Standish finished 6th in the batting averages which were led by Alec Hearne of Kent with G.G. Hearne third. Also includes four original candid photographs of a match and players, possibly taken on a Club tour. A well presented album of an actor/entertainer and keen club cricketer of the period in the south east London area with many unusual and scarce contents. One album page detached, otherwise the contents in good condition £250/350

THE CRICKET COLLECTION OF MICHAEL SMITH, CRICKET LOVER OF KENT. Part Five

Michael Smith was an avid and passionate cricket collector from Kent. He has been ranked a 'having one of the finest- possibly the finest collection of caps, blazers and items worn by top Test cricketers'. Michael held a formidable treasure-trove of all things cricket particularly favouring items of a remarkable and of a personal nature. Explaining his passion Michael once said that the majority of his items '.... either help revive wonderful memories or make me feel somehow in touch with the greats I have never seen'. The family hope that these items will be enjoyed by collectors with equal passion

The following four lots comprise scrapbooks covering seasons 1951-1954 personally compiled by Desmond Eagar, Captain of Hampshire 1946-1957 and also Secretary from 1946 until his death in 1977. His son, Patrick is the well known sports photographer

199 Edward Desmond Russell Eagar. Gloucestershire, Hampshire & Oxford University 1935-1957. Large red scrapbook album compiled by Eagar covering the 1951 season and winter 1952, comprising press cuttings, over forty good original press and candid photographs of Eagar and Hampshire players, some signed and some with witty captions in Eagar's hand. Also a Wilkes photograph of the 1951 team, matches in progress, fund raising events, dinners etc. Signed photographs include Jimmy Gray and Peter Sainsbury, Mervyn Burden. Two original cartoons by Tom Webster, one of a donkey, the other a headless cricketer. A report from M.C.C. sent to all counties comparing first class cricket in 1911 and 1947 showing that, despite the War, the standard in 1947 was not much lower than in 1911, a typed speech given by R.S. Rait Kerr, Secretary of M.C.C. to the County Secretaries at Lord's, 11th December 1951, with other articles reproduced from the press relating to proposed changes to the first class game in England to improve slow over-rates, unfinished matches etc. A scorecard for a testimonial match held for George Heath (Hampshire

1937-1949), Hampshire Present v Hampshire Past, Dean Park, Bournemouth, 5th September 1951. Two original designs for a bookplate for Eagar's personal library. Letters from Diana Rait Kerr, Curator of the M.C.C. museum, and Neville Cardus both congratulating Eagar on the publication of the Hampshire C.C.C. annual handbook. Also a typed letter from the cricket historian and statistician, Roy Webber to Eagar describing a method for captains to calculate a declaration depending on runs required within the available minutes remaining in a match, with accompanying hand drawn chart. An excellent captain's perspective of Hampshire's season and County cricket in general with good images. Some wear to the album, one page inserted loose, the contents in otherwise good condition. Another photograph is signed by Shackleton having being presented with the match ball by Eagar. Also photographs of matches at various County grounds, dinners, an aerial view of the County Ground, Southampton with a large crowd in attendance for the match v Australians which was played during Coronation Week. Cuttings relating to the match refer to 'Crowd Stops Game', when the crowd became so large the boundary twice had to be moved in to allow more spectators in, but following unrest the gates were closed at 2.45pm. Some cuttings have been annotated by Eagar, in particular one for which the headline reads 'Hampshire's slow batting not good for cricket', Eagar has written 'Glamorgan were slower than us! This is the type of reporting we are up against. The P.A. [Press Association] receive this & dish it out to our local paper. Anyway, why blame the batting here. What about the defensive bowling & field settings?'. Other items include an official football match ticket for England v Scotland, Wembley, 18th April 1953, a hand drawn wagon wheel for Eagar's innings of 112 v Kent at Southampton, official menus and invitations to receptions and dinners, including a handwritten invitation from the Duke of Beaufort, President of Gloucestershire C.C.C. to attend their annual dinner 'when I hope you will present to [wicket keeper A.E.] Wilson the ball which Hampshire have had mounted, as a souvenir of his world record' (Wilson had taken ten catches for Gloucestershire against Hampshire at Portsmouth). A menu for the dinner is also included. A hand drawn birthday card/ letter with poem from the poet, Imogen Gibson, whose work Eagar admired and invited to contribute two poems for inclusion in the 1955 Hampshire handbook. - 249 George Gibbons Hearne. Kent & England, 1875-1895. 'The Diaries of George Hearne written on W.W. Read's tour to South Africa 1891-1892'. Small one hundred and fourteen page full leather maroon diary and, follow on, black lined page hardback diary with metal clip containing twenty five pages of the diary, handwritten by Hearne in pencil, covering the majority of the tour to South Africa. The diary begins with leaving Waterloo Station in London on the morning of 21 November 1891 for Southampton, and sailing from the quayside on the 'Dunottar Castle', the ship calling at Madeira en route, and arriving at Cape Town on 8 December 1891. Hearne then continues with mention of life in South Africa, the places visited on tour, the cricket matches played, the arduous and often dangerous travel facing the team covering the tour from the opening match against Western Province in Cape Town on the 19th December 1891 up until the 3rd of March 1892, which was the opening day of the 16th tour match against 22 of Orange Free State in Bloemfontein when the diary abruptly ends.... Three 'Hearnes' took part in the tour, George Gibbons, his brother Alec, both of Kent and John Thomas Hearne (no relation) of Middlesex. In addition, George and Alec's other brother Frank had emigrated to South Africa in 1888 for health reasons and took part in some of the matches played. When Hearne's diary entries are written in the present tense he uses the first person and when he is writing retrospectively he writes in the third person, referring to himself as 'GG'.

- Saturday Nov 21st 1891. 'Team left Waterloo for Southampton 11.40am and received a splendid send off. The station crowded with friends we reached Southampton docks about 1.30. Was then taken up river about 3 miles by tender, and stepped on board the Dunottar Castle about 3.30pm, left Southampton at 5.35 and passed the needles about 7.30 and all went well till bedtime 10.30pm'. Monday Nov 23rd. 'Seven of the team very bad. Harry, Alec and I stick to our bunks altogether. Cannot eat. Alec much worst. Sea very rough, boat tossing very much. Mr Read's [W.W] birthday. We present him with a silver matchbox'. Wednesday Nov 25th. '...We reach Madeira about 5.30 in the morning. A cup of coffee at 6.... previous to this I ought to add that we were awakened before 6 by a big swarm of natives all along one side of the ship with their ware for sale to the passengers.... but what interested us as much as anything was a swarm of half coloured boys diving for money ..... we could hardly believe that we were only about 4 days from home to see such a difference in the people and their customs.... We play cards, ship quoits, ring the buckets and read all day and singing in the evening. It has been a glorious day and smooth sea'. Saturday Nov 28th. .... 'Sighted Cape Verde about 8.30am. Steady sea... 6 professionals play 6 of the ship's officers at cricket on top deck and beat them. We had a concert on the 2nd class deck, free to the whole ship. Alec sang 'The Lads in Red'. 'Tuesday Dec 8th. 'Landed at Cape Town at 7am and we were met about 9am by some of the Cape Town notabilities. Frank (Hearne, brother) and Rosie also met on board' .... 'After lunch we all journeyed out to the cricket ground at Newlands in a wagonette and four horses. A very pleasant drive about 6 or 7 miles. Thursday Dec 10th 'All the team go to Newlands for practice' ... 'It has been very fine and warm today. G.G.'s nose rather red and tender. The sun has dazzled on it'. Thursday Dec 17th. 'All the team are invited to a splendid dinner at the Royal Hotel. Sir Thomas Uppingham in the chair. Sir Thomas, among other things, made a very flattering speech concerning Frank. [Hearne, brother] Mr Murdoch [W.L.] did likewise. It was something that Frank might feel very proud of indeed. It showed all of us of the English team what a great favourite Frank is and how well respected'. Saturday Dec 19th. 'We commence our first match v 18 of the Western Province. We are very anxious to win this match and make 200 runs..... things go very wrong for us... but G.G. then steps in and plays what we all considered to be a very good innings of 37 and just when they were badly wanted'.....'Chatterton played a good innings of 83. Both he and G.G. were loudly applauded for their display'. Wednesday Dec 23rd. We commence our second match v 15 of Cape Colony. We make 180. Alec played a splendid innings of 64' .... Wednesday Dec 30th. 'We all spend a very pleasant day with Mr J. L. Logan. He is one of the very best gentlemen one could possibly meet. He entertained us like princes and commenced directly on stepping out of the train on a champagne breakfast. We then play cricket, lawn tennis, football, bathing, billiards &c. Mr Logan has a splendid place and we are invited to do just as we please. In the evening we sit down to a grand dinner and afterwards a smoking concert. G.G. & Alec both sing. All the amateurs sleep at Mr Logan's and the rest of the team sleep in the railway saloon carriage in the station adjoining Mr Logan's house. Mr Logan's house was too full to sleep us all (this is a rollicking night)'. Thursday Dec 31st .... 'Afterwards starting on our journey again to Port Elizabeth at 8.15..... 'The country is grand. We are continually running in and out the mountains, the line at times running very much up and down the sides of the mountains and turning and twisting about like a large snake. We had dinner at midnight. Friday Jan 1st [1892]. 'Saw the New Year in while at dinner last night and drank a bumper [a large drinking vessel, filled to the brim] to all those we love at home. We had three quarters of an hour for our midnight dinner and off again' .... 'We then go on till 6 p.m. when we reach Port Elizabeth and jolly glad to get out of the train, although the scenery has been something never to forget all the way along. We have seen plenty of ostrich, a few other large birds and a few monkeys. We were met at Port Elizabeth station by a large crowd of people' ..... 'The journey is 835 miles'. Friday Jan 8th. 'No cricket we spend a day of leisure and take the train at 7.30 p.m. for Kimberley. We have a splendid send off at the station by a very large crowd of people who wished us every success'. Saturday Jan 9th. 'Still in train. We enjoy the scenery as we keep whisking through the country. We see all sort of peculiar things and pass through a storm of locust'. Sunday Jan 10th. 'We arrive at Kimberley at 2.35 this morning and at once make for the Central Hotel. We rise about 10 a.m. for breakfast,. Have a look round the town before dinner, and after dinner the whole of the team are shown over the Compound of De Beers Diamond Mine. There are over 2000 niggers and we saw a lot of Zulus and Basutos performing their war dances. I ought to mention that although we arrived so early in the morning we were met at the station by a good number of Kimberley people' .... 'It has been scorching all day, 140 in the sun'. Monday Jan 11th. We commence our 5th match v 18 of Griqualand West. Mr Read lost the toss for the first time. The 18 score 124. We make 141 for one wicket. Alec caught at long leg, a good hit and a splendid one hand catch close to the boundary for 27'. Friday Jan 15th. 'Alec has a touch of Camp fever and is too ill to play any more in this match, therefore the Captain allowed Barton to take Alec's place and he scored a good 42.... Our innings closed for 236. Murdoch scored a good 77. G.G. 7 only'. Sunday Jan 17th. 'After making a meal we prepared and started on the coach journey at 5.30, & there being three other passengers besides us 12, necessitated 3 of us riding outside (the amateurs coming after us on the following day), Chatterton, Jack & G.G. filling the places on the outside. The rain slack, easing a bit, we enjoy the ride very much it being quite a treat to see the one man using the whip which is a tremendous length and the other man manipulate the reins which is no easy thing with a team of 10 mules and on such bad roads'..... 'We arrive at the Border Hotel at 10.30pm & found to our dismay the greater part of it had been burnt down a few days before our arrival, but luckily it had not touched the sleeping apartment. After being supplied with refreshments in a rather rough sort of way we retired to bed for only about 3 hours'. Monday Jan 18th. 'We were all called up at 2.30 a.m. taking the same seats as before. We were on the outside finding it very unpleasant, the rain tumbling down anyhow and very cold with it' ..... 'Starting from here at 4.30 (raining again)'..... 'and the roads being in such a bad state we should not get anything more to eat before 1.30 am' .... 'I felt fairly happy until it got dark after which we had a most miserable time, the rain coming down in torrents and the roads in an awful state which [caused] us to travel at a very slow rate, and at time[s] being nearly jolted off the top of the coach which made us afraid to even try to go to sleep' ..... 'After getting something to eat and the other mail arriving we resumed our journey at 3.0 am. Three of the others having been drafted outside I took an inside seat but could get no sleep there as the blooming coach was swaying first on one side, then the other, or else playing leapfrog over big stones or gutters (a fair beano)'. Tuesday Jan 19th .... 'About 3 we saw about 20 tremendous large vultures sitting beside the road with the skeleton of an oxen they had been performing on'.... 'We continued our journey, arriving in the town 6.0 p.m.. Crowds of people had assembled outside the Grand National Hotel to get a glimpse of us'. Wednesday Jan 20th. 'Up at 8.30 feeling much better for the night's rest. Went over the Ferreira Compy. Gold Mine' ... 'Saw lots of large lumps of gold about the size of and larger than half bricks worth about £500 per lump (did not sneak a lump)' .... 'Afterwards driving out to meet the amateurs who arrived (all in a perfect state) and wound up with a rather lively evening with some Johannesburg gentlemen'. Wednesday Jan 27th. 'Continued our 1st innings at 10.30 in splendid weather, the innings closing for 287. Brann played a splendid innings of 142. The 15 started their 2nd innings with 128 to get to save the single innings defeat. We were fielding with 3 subs as G.G., Martin and Ferris on the sick list (G.G. troubled with piles through sitting on a wet seat on the coach from Kimberley to Johannesburg for about 2 days and 2 nights, and only 3 hours bed during that time)'.... Friday Jan 29th. 'Martin & G.G. are invited... to visit that mine.... We go down the mine..... We see how it is got from first to last and take a hammer and chisel in hand and chip off a piece of the gold reef to bring home. It is really a thing never to be forgotten to see how the niggers work...Rather warm'. Wednesday Feb 3rd. 'Dull morning, very heavy rain during the night. Match continued at 11.30. Score taken to 163 for 2 wkts. We declared at 2.30 leaving the 18 202 to win. They had made 60 for 3 wkts at 5 p.m. when rain stopped play, the match ending in a draw. G.G. was still too unwell to play....' Thursday Jan 4th. 'Was up and off to Pietermaritzburg at 4.30 a.m. per coach after getting fixed up' ..... 'Resuming our journey at 11.0 we arrived at the Grange at 2.0 where we had luncheon, the rain pouring down in torrents. After luncheon we journeyed on to a farm house called The Waterfall which we reached at 4.30, where we were told we should have to stay the night as the rivers were too full for us to cross. There being another coach full of passengers in the same plight as ourselves made quite a large party of us, 27 in all, & we spent a very jolly evening under the trying circumstances. Not being enough room for us all in the house, some of us had to sleep in the coach'. Friday Feb 5th. 'Up again and on the move at 6.30 a.m. Rain had ceased and coming to the 1st (Waterfall) river, found it was not so deep, but ourselves & luggage had to be taken across in a punt, which delayed us for 2 hours' ..... 'The much longed for coach arrived at 1.30 and as one of the horse[s] went to the river for a drink he stepped in just a yard too far and was immediately caught by the strong current and swept down the river and drowned. Consequently we were one horse short to the next outspan'.... Monday Feb 8th. 'Very dull morning. Amateurs not arrived yet. They should have been here as they started from Johannesburg one day after us. We commenced the match v 22 of Maritzburg (our XI match) composed of all professionals with G.G. as captain, 22 batting first and making 116. We scored 10 for no wicket when stumps were drawn. The Governor, Sir Charles Lawrence & Lady Lawrence attended the match. Sir Charles & Lady Lawrence wished to be introduced to the English Captain. Consequently G.G. had a big thing on. They were both very nice indeed and reminded [us/me] of matches they had both seen me play in at Canterbury years ago. A banquet that was to be given to us was abandoned on account of the amateurs not yet having arrived, but a smoking concert was given which went off well'..... Wednesday Feb 10th. 'Weather simply lovely. The amateurs with J. Leaney turned up this morning and came on the ground in time to see us professionals win this match by 10 wickets, and the 22 scored 134 which left us 7 runs to get to win which we did without the loss of a wicket' .... 'In the evening we were all invited to a banquet at our Hotel and had a very lively time of it. We were all more or less jolly well elevated when we made our way to the station to catch the 12.30 train a.m. for Durban' ..... Thursday Feb 11th. 'Was awake at 6.0 a.m. and on looking out of the saloon window found we were close to Durban & by the time we were dressed we were in the station where we found Mr. Davey, the Captain of Durban 22, waiting to take us to our hotels' ..... 'We began our 12th match v 22 Durban at 12.0 o'clock. We lost the toss. We played on matting stretched on the bare feldt but fielded on grass which was rather long and very coarse. Consequently the scoring was very low as the ball did not roll far on the grass. The 22 scored 92 and we scored 34 for 6 wickets. A man named Madden took them all. He is the most deliberate chucker we ever saw with a big break and a good pace. Mr. Read certainly ought to have let our umpire (Leaney) no balled him, especially as the Durban people fully expected he would have done so, at least that is what they afterwards told us' ..... Friday Feb 12th. 'In splendid weather we resumed our match at 12.0 and Mr. Brann accompanied Chatterton to the wicket & quite changed the aspect of the game. Mr. Brann by brilliant play soon scored 70 runs. Eventually our score reached 134. The 22 scored in their 2nd innings 61 for 11 wickets'. Monday Feb 15th. 'Started from the Marine Hotel at 9.30 a.m. and caught the tender which conveyed us to the Norham Castle at 1.0 p.m. After a fairly smooth passage we were alongside her at 1.30 when we had to go through a most awful process of being hauled on board in a wicker basket hauled up by a crane which was very badly managed, several of us being knocked frightfully against the side of the ship, G.G. among others, & sorry to say one or two strangers were knocked insensible. We however got landed and lunched on board, afterwards getting a jolly send off from the gentlemen who accompanied us on the tug' ..... 'The first diary entries ends in the middle of the entry for the 16th February and starts again in the second diary. Sunday Feb 21st. 'In splendid weather we started (in three conveyances) at 7 a.m. on our journey to Graham's Town & after a lovely & most enjoyable coach drive we ever had we drove into Graham's Town just as people were going to church at 7 p.m' ..... 'Arriving at the last outspan before reaching Graham's Town we were met by several gentlemen on horseback who had not forgot to bring some beer and whisky out with them, neither did we forget to drink their health in it as our throats were well nigh parched with dust. Upon arriving in town we at once drove to the Masonic Hotel w[h]ere we were put up, and after feeding to our hearts content we had a smoke and popped into bed about 9.0 p.m'. Monday Feb 22nd. 'Morning rather dull, we commenced our 14th match v 22 of Graham's Town who batted first and were all dismissed by J.T. & Ferris for 69 runs. We commenced our 1st innings at 3.30 and at drawing of stumps had scored 45 for 3 wickets'.... Wednesday Feb 24th ..... 'We resumed match at 12.30 and the 22 were all out for 78 which left us 68 runs to get to win. Alec and Chatterton took the score to 29 for no wicket when rain stopped play for the day, the match consequently ending in a draw, all in our favour. Graham's Town is a very prettily situated little cathedral city, the cathedral standing right in the centre of the city, but it is a dreadfully slow place nevertheless and swarmed with mosquitos' .... Friday Feb 26th. 'Wet morning but cleared up early, we commenced our 15th match v 18 of Eastern Province at 12.0. The 18 won the toss and put us in and so badly did we play that we were all out at 4.30 for 77 runs, and when stumps were drawn for the day we had 14 of them out for 30 runs' ..... Saturday Feb 27th. 'In fine weather and before a very moderate company we resumed match at 12.0, the 22 finishing their innings off for 50. We started our second innings after lunch. Mr. Brann was unfortunate enough to sprain his ankle while walking down some steps in front of the pavilion, consequently he was unable to bat this innings, which closed at 5.30 for 113. G.G. was most shamefully given out lbw the first ball he received, but Chatterton was more fortunate, he being given in twice when well out, but bar that he played a good innings of 40 not out. With 141 to win the 18 started their 2nd innings and in ~o of an hour they lost 2 wickets for 4 runs. A promenade concert was given in the Drill Hall which most of us attended. Alec sang , 'Tell Her I Love Her So,'.

Mr. Read also sang'. Sunday Feb 28th. 'All the team invited out, some to a deep sea fishing excursion, and the rest to a drive out in the country. Those who went to sea caught lots of big fish & were very bad, everyone of them, but G.G. went for a drive and enjoyed it very much. A quiet evening and to bed early'. Monday Feb 29th. 'Fine morning, up early and finished writing a long love letter to my 'Dear Little Wifie' which had to be posted this morning to catch the mail. We resumed the match at 12.0 and got the 18 out for 71 runs by 3.15, consequently [won] the match by 70 runs. We then rushed off to our hotel, packed up, had dinner and caught the 6.30 train for Bloemfontein' ..... 'The train steamed out of the station at exactly 6.30, hats and sticks flying in all directions.... Wednesday March 2nd. At 3 o'clock this morning we are all awakened and told we are at Bloemfontein. Of course there is now a d[evil] of a scramble and as soon as we could rub the sleep out of eyes and look out of our saloon we saw a crowd of about 50 people who came to the station to give us a welcome' .... 'I might add that Bloemfontein is a small straggling town, principally Dutch. Mr. A. Thomas of Brockley S.E. [London] is here in the Bank, and two of our 2nd cousins named Hearne are living here'. Thursday March 3rd. 'We commence our 16th match in splendid weather v 22 of Orange Free State' ..... The diary inexplicably finishes here with four tour matches and the only Test match not recorded. A wonderful account of the voyage to South Africa, arriving at Cape Town and commencing the hectic schedule of matches, often travelling through the night and in all weathers to fulfil the tour commitments, the continual social events of banquets, suppers and smoking concerts making compelling reading. It is notable that if the amateur players do not arrive in time for any reason, banquets are cancelled and a supper or smoking concert is hastily arranged for the professionals!'. An interesting fact is that the time spent by the team in South Africa was 107 days and they had spent 102 days in the country before the commencement of the first and only Test of the tour. To the front and rear of the first diary are notes of what appear to be a record of payments made to Hearne for sales of 'copies' ie 'Received from W. Brockwell for 17 copies sold at 2/6 and 8 at 3/- at Pretoria £3-6-6' and '1st Day at Maritzburg, 12 copies sold. 30/- less 6/- for boy (24/-)'. It is possible that Hearne was selling copies of his recently published biographical pamphlet (14pp) entitled 'George Gibbons Hearne' which was published in 1890. There are also handwritten lists of clothing, both cricket and casual to be packed for the tour. The first diary measure 4.25" x 6", the diary in its entirety has become detached from the leather boards, the second diary measures 6.5" x 4.25", a little worn to the edges otherwise in good condition. A unique and unpublished account of the tour by a member of the touring party

£3000/5000

George Hearne, the eldest of three brothers, Frank and Alec were the others, all of whom played with much distinction for Kent. Playing first for Kent in the summer of 1875 when less than nineteen years of age, George Hearne kept his place in the eleven for twenty-one seasons. Hearne played in 328 first-class matches, 252 of them for Kent, primarily a bowler, left-hand round arm, fast medium in pace, he afterwards developed into a capable left-handed batsman. Hearne took 577 wickets for Kent at a cost of 16.5 runs each and scored 7344 runs with an average of 18. Among George Hearne's bowling feats were eight wickets for 46 runs against Lancashire at Old Trafford, when he performed the hat-trick, fourteen wickets for 130 runs against Derbyshire at Derby, thirteen wickets for 75 runs against Hampshire at Southampton and eight for 53 against Lancashire at Canterbury, all in the 1870's. Hearne's only Test was the first and only Test on this 1891/92 tour.

Read's team were unbeaten on the tour of South Africa, winning fourteen matches and drawing seven. They were far too strong, particularly in bowling, for the opposition it met, J.T. Hearne and Martin captured over 100 wickets each... It seems unrealistic that the only match played on equal terms is now described as a Test match. For one thing, two Australian Test cricketers, Ferris and Murdoch, as county players became members of the touring party, but went on to represent England. At the end of the tour the captain, Walter Read and manager, Edwin Ash were arrested until they provided security to cover a loan of £1000 which had been advanced by a Cape Colony businessman to cover expenses not met by the gates. There was just time for them to be ferried to the ship before it departed....

This 'Test match' game is more interesting for the following historical oddities, William Murdoch and Ferris, who had both previously played for Australia, played for England due to residence, Frank Hearne, who played for South Africa in this game, had previously played for England. Finally, the game gives the second instance of three brothers playing in the same Test match, as Frank Hearne's brothers, Alec Hearne and George Hearne played for England, a cousin, John Thomas Hearne also played for the tourists and the tour was simultaneous to the English cricket team in Australia in 1891/92, both teams deemed to have "Test status".

The diaries were bought by the vendor from a leading London dealer in 1996, who had purchased them previously from a leading auction house. A letter confirming this is sold with the diaries.

A fully transcribed typed copy of the diary is available to be read prior to the auction and sold with the diaries

Also a collection of Chapman's school reports for Fritham House, 1906-1910, Oakham School 1910-1914, and Uppingham 1914-1919. Early reports on his cricket include 'tries to score too quickly... Capital bat with a nice easy action... can bowl well... safe catch & can field anywhere'. Also included is a page of accounts for Chapman written by his father presumably as a joke as some of the expenses listed include a Racing Stable £5000-0-0, Gambling Debt £6000-0-0, Wine bill £500-0-0, Arrears £7 0 0 0 - 0 - 0 , Breakages 2 Ladies Hearts £100-10-0 etc. Sold with a selection of press cuttings published 12th-14th August 1930 collected by Chapman relating to the M.C.C.'s decision to remove him as England Captain, replacing him with the inexperienced R.E.S. Wyatt. Despite a run of poor form and results favouring Australia, the consensus in the press appears to be that he did not deserve to lose the Captaincy and his place in the side for the fifth and final Test of the Ashes series. G. A fascinating account of Chapman's early years and cricket career £100/150

Born in 1900, Chapman went to Fritham House school where his father was headmaster and who first encouraged Percy to take up cricket. He was first appointed Captain of England in 1926, somewhat controversially, replacing Arthur Carr for the final Test of the Ashes series, the first four Tests having been drawn. Chapman led England to victory by

289 runs. England won the first nine Tests in a row with Chapman as Captain, but then a run of two defeats and six draws ultimately led to his removal for the final Test of the 1930 Ashes series due to a loss of form and reported drinking problems. However, he was reinstated for the 1930/31 tour to South Africa in which he played his last Test match

	1911 was the last season Brearley played County cricket for Lancashire. In 1912 he played his last Test match for England whilst appearing for Cheshire		Len Hutton was quoted as saying 'Mr Barnes stood so close... I could hear his breathing... due to the efficiency of Lindwall.... Barnes was as safe as a row of houses in this silly short leg position'. However, he received criticism for this approach and it resulted in him missing the fourth Test at Leeds through injury. In England's first innings of the third Test, he was hit in the ribs and had to be carried from the pitch by four policemen. The following day, he collapsed while practising in the nets, and when he went in to bat at number six, he collapsed again and
375	Leslie Thomas John Arola was an English journalist, author and cricket commentator for the BBC's Test Match Special. He was also a poet and wine connoisseur. had to retire hurt. After this, he was taken to hospital where he spent 10 days before rejoining the tour for the Derbyshire match that followed the fourth Test. Barnes thus played in four of the five Tests, missing the fourth Test through injury. He scored 329 runs in the Tests, averaging 82.25. In all first-class matches on the tour, he amassed 1354 runs, averaging 56.41.

- 377 Frank Edward Woolley. Kent & England 1906-1938. A Gunn & Moore 'Autograph' cricket bat used by Woolley during the 1929/30 tour of Ceylon, Australia & New Zealand. The bat is inscribed in ink to back 'F.E.W. 1929-30 1500 runs'. The bat is signed by Woolley. The blade of the bat bound in several places, Minor wear to grip. The butt of the bat stamped 'Left Hand'. This historic bat was sold as 'bat number 213' by Nottinghamshire C.C.C., through Redmayne & Todd Ltd 'Sports Outfitters' of Nottingham in 1947, amongst over eighty cricket bats in a sale of part of Sir Julian Cahn's fine collection of bats which were donated to the Nottinghamshire County Cricket Club following his death in September 1944. The bat is sold with the original receipt for the bat from Redmayne & Todd Ltd, dated 10th March 1947 and a photocopy of the bat sale catalogue entitled 'A Collection of Historic Bats'. The buyer a Mr W.G. Day O.B.E. of Grays, Essex paid £4 and four shillings for the bat £250/350

Frank Woolley scored 780 runs in first class matches on the tour, he made 146 v South Australia, November 8th-12th 1929, 219 v New South Wales, November 22nd-26th, 132 v Otago, 31st December, 1st & 2nd January, 125 v Manawatu, January 17th/18th etc.

- 378 Andrew Sandham. Surrey & England 1911-1937. 'Record breaking score'. 'B. Warsop, Marylebone. Extra Special' cricket bat used by Sandham on the M.C.C. tour of the West Indies in 1929/30. The bat has a silver metal plaque to face which is engraved 'A. Sandham. 325. 1st Innings Test Match. M.C.C. v West Indies Jamaica 1930. Total 849. Directly below the plaque are the ink signatures of the sixteen members of the touring party including Manager, and Umpire. Signatures include Calthorpe (Cpt), Haig, G.T.S. Stevens, Rhodes, Sandham, Townsend, Ames, Gunn, Voce, Hendren etc. Strangely the bat has the initials 'F.S.G.C.' to the bat shoulder, F.S.G. Calthorpe, the Captain of the tour, maybe Sandham used his bat.... Previously sold in Phillips sale of June 1988. Some minor wear and ageing, the rubber bat handle perished otherwise in good condition £400/600

Sandham made his Surrey debut in 1911. In his 26 years at the county Sandham formed a formidable opening partnership with Jack Hobbs, and the two put on a hundred for the first wicket on 66 occasions. In the 1929/30 series he achieved his greatest fame. In the first Test at Bridgetown he made 152 and 51. In the next two games he failed completely, making 0 and 5 at Port of Spain and then 9 and 0 at Georgetown. In the fourth and final Test at Kingston, however, he became the first Test triple centurion when he compiled a mammoth 325 out of England's equally imposing total of 849, beating R. E. Foster's individual Test score record of 287, which had stood for twenty-seven years, Sandham made 50 in the second innings. His aggregate of 375 in the match stood as the Test record until Greg Chappell eclipsed it. He made the runs with a long-handled bat borrowed from his captain Freddie Calthorpe and a pair of ill-fitting boots borrowed from Patsy Hendren. At 39 years and 272 days, he is, by almost five years, the oldest player to break the individual scoring record in Tests. The Kingston Test was Sandham's final match at Test level, and his 325 is by some distance the highest score in a final Test match.

379 Australian tour of England 1926. 'Gunn & Moore. The Autograph' cricket bat signed to face in ink by fourteen members of the touring party including the Manager, Sydney Smith. Signatures are Collins (Cpt), Bardsley, Ryder, Woodfull, Gregory, Mailey, Richardson, Ellis, Ponsford, Grimmett, Oldfield, Taylor and Hendry. Also signed to inside front board by Jack Hobbs, on the tour as a journalist. The 'Dedication' page reads 'To One who stayed at Home' and is signed below this inscription by Hart. One plate loose. Some foxing to page block otherwise in good condition. A rarely seen signed Bodyline book £250/350

George Hart may well, in the course of a fourteen year career for Middlesex have been twelfth man more often than any other cricketer. For good measure, he had also acted as twelfth man for England in three Tests at Lord's, a position for which his faultless fielding admirably qualified him.

- 381 'M.C.C. 1787-1937'. The Times Publishing Company. London 1937. Very nicely signed to the front end paper in black ink by the Yorkshire and Middlesex teams who played at The Oval on the 11th to 14th September 1937, being the end of season finale, Championship winning County (Yorkshire) v Runners-up (Middlesex). Twenty four signatures in total, nine signatures of the Middlesex team, thirteen signatures of the Yorkshire team and the signatures of the two umpires Frank Chester and Joe Hardstaff. Signatures include Sellers, Hutton, Yardley, Sutcliffe, Mitchell, Verity, Smailes, Leyland, Wood, Bowes, Owen-

Smith, Hendren, Edrich, Smith, Sims, Hart, Gray etc. Hart has also signed the front end paper facing the front board 'G.E. Hart, Lord's 1937'. Foxing to odd pages, some wear to boards and total loss of spine paper otherwise in good condition. Sold with 'Cricket is my Life'. Len Hutton 1949, nicely signed in ink to front end paper by Hutton, odd faults, some foxing wear to spine paper otherwise in good condition. Qty 2 £80/120

Yorkshire won the match by an innings and 115 runs, Yorkshire making 401 all out in their first innings (Hutton 121, Mitchell 86, Smith 4-76) and Middlesex being bowled out for 185 (Smailes 4-51) and 101 (Verity 8-43) in their two innings.

The original orange boards with some soiling and minor wear. Padwick 4619. A scarce book from this early first tour of South Africa £4000/6000
Post tour account of the first English tour to South Africa, led by Aubrey Smith. The tourists played nineteen matches, two against the comparatively weak South African eleven. The matches described in great detail, the two Tests were won with ease by the tourists. The touring party comprised of six professionals and seven amateurs, the star players of the tour being Johnny Briggs who took 290 wickets and Bobby Abel scoring over 1000 runs on the tour, three of the touring party did not ever play first class cricket. The manager Robert G Warton had played one match for Essex in 1878 and umpired in eight of the tour matches including the two Tests. George Ulyett replaced James Roberts who returned to England early on the death of one of his parents having played only one match

The 1929/30 tour was the first on which Test matches were played between England and New Zealand, and marked New Zealand's debut in Test cricket. The second Test was drawn, top scorers in the match were Dempster (136) and Mills (117) for New Zealand in their first innings
- 611 'Ten Thousand Miles Through India & Burma. An Account of the Oxford University Authentics' Cricket Tour With Mr K.J. Key...'. Cecil Headlam. London 1903. Blue cloth boards, speckled page edges. Ex libris A.E. Winder. Internal foxing, otherwise in good condition £150/250
- 612 William Clulow Sim. 'The Log of the "Old Un" from Liverpool to San Francisco: dedicated without permission, to the members of the English cricketing eleven, who visited America and Canada in 1886. a plain unvarnished "Log", a simple tribute of regard that the "Old Un" hopes will be accepted, in recollection of many pleasant days on land and sea'. Printed for private circulation. H.S. Eland, Printer, Exeter 1887. 30 pages, pale yellow pictorial hard covers, later reinforced spine, with a real photograph of Arthur Rhodes Cobb, sitting wearing cricket attire with a bat and trophy on table next to him, laid down to the inside front board. and inscribed 'With the Old Un's kindest regards. William C. Sim, April 1887', also with the ownership signature of C.I.S. Wallace 1944. The last page of the book announced the 'melancholy occurrence, in the death of Mr. Cobb' who had died of cholera soon after his return from the tour. The book is preserved in a document envelope tipped in to grey boards with a typed title to front cover. The original pale yellow boards with some wear and staining and rounding to corners. Minor soiling to last page otherwise in good condition internally. Padwick 4898. A very rare tour book signed by the author.
- The book is sold with a related letter, with good association, from C.I.S. Wallace in which he refers to actually obtaining the book... A two page handwritten letter, dated 20th September 1945, and sent from his home in Orpington to a Mr Tyler sending him with compliments three small books. Wallace writes of having collected during 50 years and found great assistance from the real enthusiasts; perhaps a good thing that there are not more or 'the dealers would take even greater advantage of us than they do. Only last week one of them actually asked me to pay 5/- each for some odd numbers of, 'MCC Scores,' when A D Taylor tells us that the whole set is worth only 15/-. I only wish the defunct Cricketana Society would revive'. He then goes on to share Tyler's dislike of paper covers on books and explains how he got over the problem of wear by removing the wraps and pasting them on cardboard. He even does this to Wisdens. He finishes with informing Tyler that his latest find, 'which gave me great joy, was a copy of, 'The Log of the Old'un, a very rare little gem'. A very interesting explanation of Wallace's unique style of re-binding still encountered today and possibly used on this book... £8000/12000
The 'Old Un' was the nom de plume of William Clulow Sim, who acted as scorer for E.J. Sanders team of English cricketers which toured America and Canada in 1886. On his return he recorded his observations and impressions of the tour in this book, giving full details of the nine matches played, seven in America and two in Canada, but also giving an insight into life and cricket as it grew in North America
- The tour was arranged by Edward James Sanders, whose team made a successful tour to America and Canada in the previous year with large crowds in attendance. Sim explained that 'having long wished to pay my son in California a visit, I was easily persuaded by Ned Sanders, the Manager of the English Cricketting Eleven, to accompany his party across the Atlantic, in the official capacity of Scorer'. Both Sim and Sanders played most of their cricket for representative Devon county sides and held administrative roles for the Devon club. The batting averages of the tourists were dominated by K J Key (Surrey), the captain, who scored 388 at 29.11 with the only century of the tour; the bowling honours were shared around. Other notable tourists included W.E. Roller of Surrey and C.E. Cottrell of Middlesex who were the principal bowlers.*
- As far as we can ascertain... there are four known copies of the book, one being held at Lord's, one in a private collection overseas, there was a copy in the Winder collection, as listed by D.R. Allen, which may have been Goldman's copy and this copy which came indirectly from the Wallace collection. A.D. Taylor listed a copy in his Catalogue of Cricket Literature as 'exceedingly rare'; Goldman had a* copy in his collection and called it 'very scarce'. No copy has been found to be noted in auction catalogues.

- Herbert Jenner played in great or first-class matches from 1825 to 1838. He played for Eton against Harrow in 1822, and in 1827, he captained Cambridge University in the inaugural university match played at Lord's Cricket Ground scoring forty five runs in the single innings out of a total of nine two and taking five wickets including the Oxford Captain, Charles Wordsworth. Jenner was an all-rounder. He kept wicket when not bowling and is said to have been one of the finest amateur wicketkeepers. Scores & Biographies quotes an old song:*
- 'Free from all affectation young Jenner stands forth, And all who are judges acknowledge his worth; Wicket-keeper, or bowler, or batter, in all He is good, but, perhaps, shines most wit the ball.'*
- In first-class cricket, he was associated with Cambridge University, Kent (1827-36) and MCC. He played for several predominantly amateur teams including the Gentlemen in the Gentlemen v Players series. When in 1836 he ceased playing at Lord's, it was said by Haygarth that the Gentlemen had lost one of the best players they ever had. (Scores & Biographies, Vol 1, p462). He was elected President of the M.C.C. in 1833 at the early age*
- of twenty seven and in 1864 he adopted the additional surname of Fust.
- Jenner played in first-class matches from 1825 to 1838. He scored 842 runs with a highest score of 75. He is credited with 75 wickets including a best performance of 7 in an innings; he took five wickets in an innings on at least five occasions. As a wicket-keeper, he took 24 catches and made 17 stumpings. Outliving by nearly twelve years all players in the university match of 1827, he died at Hill Court, Gloucestershire in 1904 in his 99th year. A oil portrait of Jenner, by Frank Cox, hangs in the pavilion at Lord's cricket ground.

	A pupil of Sir John Everett Millais, Archibald J. Stuart Wortley (1849-1905) was a portrait and sporting painter of considerable renown. This limited edition photogravure, signed by both the artist and W.G. Grace, is based on an oil painting which was commissioned by the M.C.C. by means of subscriptions in 1888-90, and now hangs in the Long Room. The artist was paid £300. The scene is Lord's Ground with the old tennis court in the background, now the site of the Mound Stand. 'When standing for this picture, W.G. took up his characteristic and delightful pose. The artist hesitated: 'But Dr Grace, would you stand as easily if the game were in a tight place?' he asked. 'Certainly' was the reply, 'because, after all, I should only be facing the next ball'

Devereux of Eton, Bucks, with excellent raised embroidered touring emblem of St. George & Dragon in silver thread to front of cap. 'W.E. Bowes' handwritten in black ink to inner label of cap. Wear and some damage to inner lining, the cap has one small moth hole to the rear otherwise in good condition. A rare Bodyline tour cap, one of only seventeen caps issued to the players on the tour. A cap from the '1932/33. Bodyline' series must surely be the ultimate possession of any serious cricket cap collector. A rare and almost unique cap from the iconic series which caused such controversy and ill feeling with its leg theory bowling which has had long lasting repercussions on both Test and County cricket £2500/3500

The cap was purchased by the vendor from Eddie Lawrence, cricket writer and Somerset cricket lover but originally from Yorkshire, in 2010, in the year that he died. The cap emblem and makers label have been checked against the 'Bodyline' 1932/33 cap held at Lord's museum, which was Harold Larwood's, and they are identical Bill Bowes playing career with Yorkshire spanned from 1929-1947. He played in 372 first-class matches as a right arm fast bowler and a right-handed tail end batsman. He took 1,639 wickets with a best performance of nine for 121 and completed ten wickets in a match 27 times. He scored 1,531 runs with a highest score of 43* and is one of very few major players whose career total of wickets taken exceeded his career total of runs scored. Bowes was a late selection for the tour, just three days before the ship sailed, for England's tour of Australia and New Zealand in 1932-33. He played in only the second Test on the Australian leg of the tour, at the Melbourne Cricket Ground, in which he bowled Don Bradman first ball and that was his only wicket in the match, which Australia won by 111 runs. Bowes played in the second Test against New Zealand at Eden Park in Auckland and took six for 34 on the first day to bowl New Zealand out for only 158. Bowes played in twelve first-class matches on the tour and took 37 wickets with his best performance the six for 34 in the Auckland Test.

The tour of Australia & New Zealand in 1932/33 was Bill Bowes only overseas tour with the M.C.C.

890 Graham Anthony Richard 'Tony' Lock. Surrey, Leicestershire, Western Australia & England 1946-1971. Navy M.C.C. non-touring cap with M.C.C. letters embroidered to front. Initials 'T.L.' handwritten to label inside. Sold with a Surrey tie and a benefit tie produced in Australia, presumed to be from a benefit given to Lock when playing for Western Australia. Sold with a photocopied letter of provenance from the previous vendor who sold the collection privately in 2009. Qty 3. G/VG £80/120

Tony Lock was successful for all four major teams he played for taking 100 wickets in a season on fourteen occasions and taking 200 wickets twice, his best year being 1955 taking 215 wickets at an average of 14.39. His outstanding bowling performance was in taking all ten wickets (for 54 runs) for Surrey v Kent at Blackheath in 1956. In 1962/63 he was left out of the M.C.C. touring party and instead played for Western Australia. Lock was famously the bowler who took 'the other wicket' when Jim Laker achieved his world-record 19-90 at Old Trafford against Australia in 1956. His tally of 831 first class catches, mostly taken at short leg, lies behind only W.G. Grace and Frank Woolley in the all time listing

- 912 Victoria v New South Wales 1952/53. "The Barnstormers". Victoria Cross!. Original pen and ink caricature/ cartoon artwork by artist Samuel Wells for publication in an Australian newspaper. The cartoon relates to the close of the second day's play in the Sheffield Shield match, Melbourne, 21st-25th November 1952, Victoria having scored 347 and New South Wales on 320-2. The main part of the cartoon shows Barnes (136no) dressed as a clown painting the New South Wales score on a board, Morris (69) looking on chuckling, 'Excuse us larfin'', and Burke (67no) and Carroll (44) dancing together behind, 'They ain't seen nuthin' yet!'. Other references show Hassett praying for rain, 'With the 2 B's Barnes & Burke still there & Miller, de Courcy, Benaud, Lindwall & their latest batting babe Ian Craig to follow- we reckon Hassett better start praying for rain or an earthquake otherwise Vic will never get 'em out'. It also describes 'A black day for Vic bowlers', and bored selectors predicting Sam Loxton will be the only Victoria player likely to be picked in the Tests based on performances in this match. 11.25"x18". Pin holes to corners not affecting the cartoon, otherwise in good/ very good condition £70/100

Wells born in 1885 worked drawing sporting cartoons for the Melbourne Punch, Herald and The Age and also worked for the Daily Dispatch in the UK

913 South Africa tour to Australia 1952/53. 'Hassett the Asset Bakes "A Cake" in Adelaide'. Original pen and ink caricature/ cartoon artwork by artist Samuel Wells for publication in the Melbourne Age. The cartoon relates to the conclusion of the drawn fourth Test played at Adelaide, 24th-29th January 1953. The cartoon depicts Hassett dressed as a chef baking a cake with ingredients '8th Century in Tests, 53 in 1st Class Games', and below is shown a South African batsman sobbing against a wall on which is displayed Australia's first innings total of 530, Hassett's score of 163, McDonald's 154, Harvey 84, Hole 59 and Ring 28, "The Wailing Wall". Looked like if S. Africa would need a bulldozer to bring it down'. Also depicted on the wall are Johnston (5/110) and Benaud (4/118) with despondent batsmen Watkins, 'Fun' (Funston), Melle and Mansell looking on. Other areas of the cartoon feature Hassett and McDonald shaking hands celebrating their stand of 275 to beat Woodfull and Bradman's previous record by one run, and Morris (77) and Harvey (116) in Australia's second innings, 'But it was all in vain' as a shocked kangaroo is told 'Time

Gentlemen Please' and Australia are described as 'The Laughing Stock' with the 'World' looking on laughing. 11.25"x18". G/VG £70/100

914 'A Trip into the Christmasphere' 1957. Original pen and ink caricature/ cartoon artwork by artist Samuel Wells for publication in an Australian newspaper around Christmas 1957. Hand written title in pencil to top border, 'Happy Landing, Fellers!'. Celebrating Australian sporting achievements in 1956 and looking forward to 1957, the cartoon depicts a hot air balloon in the form of a jovial winking Father Christmas floating over the sea with a grinning leaping fish in the background. In the basket of the balloon are a group of notable Australian sportsmen including cricketers Colin McDonald, Norman O'Neill and 'Ben' (Richie Benaud), with the golfer Peter Thomson, and tennis players Mal Anderson and Ashley Cooper. Above, on the horizon, is a table laden with a 'Century Pudding', a sack of 'Prosperity' with the tag "'Sparkling" Cricket', the Ashes urn labelled 'Recovery of Ashes' and a trophy, probably the Australian tennis open trophy, labelled 'Hold that Cup'. In the top corner is the Sputnik satellite sending the message 'Eat Drink & Be Merry'. 11.25"x18". Excellent condition £80/120

Tennis player Ashley Cooper won the Australian Open in 1957 and retained the title in 1958. The golfer, Peter Thomson, had won the (British) Open Championship in 1954, 1955 and 1956, was runner-up in 1957, before winning the title again in 1958. In the following Ashes series when M.C.C. toured in 1958/59, Australia regained the Ashes for the first time since 1950/51

915 M.C.C. tour to Australia 1965/66. 'Lion Down- Takes a Tumble'. Original pen and ink caricature/ cartoon artwork by artist Samuel Wells for publication in the Melbourne Age, 26th November 1965. The cartoon marks Victoria's first win in forty one years against M.C.C. in the match played at Melbourne, 19th-23rd November 1965. The cartoon depicts "'Alan Conn-tinu-olly" 4/84', an Australian batsman with a knot tied in its tail diving onto a prostrate lion with a bat showing the M.C.C. scores of 211 and 306, and 'Happy Billy Boy [Bill Lawrie, Captain] did everything just right- where there's a 'Will' (Lawry) there's a way'. Below, Lawry is shown shaking the hand of Graeme Watson, and 'Full marks to "Kennie the Knocker" [Ken Barrington] for his 158- probably would still be there only for umpire Collicoat & his poor batting mates' and the "'Dux" of the class', M.C.C. batsmen Murray, Jones, Brown, Higgs and Barber who all scored ducks in the match. Finally, a view of a flooded cricket ground with rowing and sailing boats, "'You Rower!" 2nd wash out for M.C.C. visit to Euroa- time they changed it to "You Rower" & turned it into aquatic events'. 12.25"x18". Excellent condition £100/150

Victoria beat M.C.C. by 32 runs. The following tour match v Victoria Country at the Memorial Oval, Euroa, was washed out without a ball being bowled

916 India tour to Australia 1947/48. 'Indians' Keen Cricket Follower!' Large original pen and ink caricature/ cartoon artwork, highlighted with colour, for 'The Herald' newspaper by artist Samuel Wells. The cartoon, date stamped to verso 19th December 1947, depicts a large man with 'Jupe Pluvius (The Drip)' to the front of his costume, bearing a watering can with labels for 'Brisbane', 'Sydney' and 'Melp?' shown underneath an extract from Coleridge's poem, the Ancient Mariner. Water is being poured over the manager of the Indian touring party, Pankaj Gupta, depicted with a fish's tail, smoking a pipe, holding a cricket bat and holding a piece of paper which reads, 'Ruined Gate Receipts'. The cartoon, signed by Wells, measures 15.5"x20". Minor damage to extremities, otherwise in good/very good condition £100/150

The 1947/48 tour to Australia was the first by 'India' rather than 'All-India', following the partitioning of India, Pakistan and Ceylon in 1947. The first two matches of the Test series were hampered by wet weather, Australia winnings the first Test at Brisbane by an innings and 226 runs, the second Test at Sydney

- being drawn. Australia ended winning the five match series 4-0, with the Indian touring party making a significant financial loss. 'Pluvius' (giver of rain) is one of a number of weather-related epithets connected with the Roman god, Jupiter*
- 917 Australia 1948. 'Tain't Cricket- It's Skittles! that was played at the MCG Saturday'. Original pen and ink caricature/ cartoon artwork, highlighted with colour, for 'The Herald' newspaper by artist Samuel Wells.
