- It is assumed that Liverpool Cricket Club asked Wisden to provide hardback copies of back numbers to look identical with original hardback copies bought by the club after 1896. To a purist they cannot be described as 'original hardbacks' but were certainly bound by Wisden in publisher's hard cloth, albeit at a later date. The address given by Wisden on the front cover is 23, Cranbourn Street which was not used until 1913.*
- 791 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1907 & 1908. 44th & 45th editions. Both with original paper wrappers, the 1907 edition with replacement spine paper. - ORIGINAL PAPER WRAPPED AND CLOTH COVERED WISDENS
- 1035 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1864, 1865 and 1866. 1st, 2nd & 3rd editions. The three editions bound together as one in blue boards, all lacking original wrappers, with titles in gilt to spine. All pages checked. The 1864 edition is complete. The 1865 edition lacks four 'prominent dates' pages for May to December 1865 being pages 5/6, 7/8, 9/10 and 11/12 otherwise complete. The 1866 edition is lacking its title page, six pages detailing the prominent dates for January to December 1866 being pages 1/2, 3/4, 5/6, 7/8, 9/10 and 11/12 and two pages 'The Laws of Cricket' being pages 13/14 and 15/16. Some annotation to all three editions, albeit the majority written in pencil. Odd minor faults, otherwise in good condition. Previously sold at Christie's, May 2000 auction as lot 14 £6000/8000
- 1036 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1868. 5th edition. Pair of original wrappers from the 1868 edition. The wrappers are a little faded, the front wrapper has some loss to edges, the rear wrapper cleanly detached and in good overall condition. A valuable edition to a collector with the same edition lacking wrappers, I would suggest £80/120
- 1037 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1876. 13th Edition. Bound in dark brown boards, lacking original wrappers, with titles in gilt to spine, red speckled page block edges. Very good condition. Pages checked, complete. Rare £700/1000
- 1038 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1878. 15th edition. Handsomely half bound in red leather, with original paper wrappers, with raised bands and title and date in gilt to spine. Red marbled end papers and gilt to top edge. Binding by prestigious London binding company, Morrell Binders. Pages checked, complete. Standard (for this year) wear, age toning and fading to the original wrappers, very small loss to the top right hand corner of the front wrapper, some minor wear to both wrapper extremities otherwise in good/very good condition. Bookplate of ownership to inside front board. Rare £700/1000
- 1039 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1879. 16th edition. Original paper wrappers. Usual standard fading to the wrappers of this edition. The front wrapper and title page are cleanly detached from the book, the front wrapper with almost half of the top right hand side missing, old tape marks to spine edge, also two old tape marks to back of title page and 'notes' page, name of ownership to top border of title page, some wear to title page edge, total loss of spine paper otherwise in good condition £200/250
- 1040 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1881. 18th edition. Original paper wrappers. Old tape mark down the spine edge of the front and rear wrappers, some corner loss to front wrapper, some more minor nicks and small loss to the rear wrapper otherwise in good condition £250/300
- 1041 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1893. 30th edition. Original paper wrappers. Wear, fading and staining to the wrappers, small loss to spine paper, Number '30' handwritten boldly to lower border of the front wrapper, '1892' boldly handwritten to page block edge, the photographic plate misbound between pages 254/255, internally in good condition. The book slightly warped £60/90
- 1042 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1895. 32nd edition. Bound in dark brown boards, with original paper wrappers, titles in gilt to spine. Old tape marks to the vertical edge of each wrapper near to spine. Some age toning and foxing internally, some foxing and staining to page block edge otherwise in good condition £50/70
- 1043 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1895. 32nd edition. Original paper wrappers. Wear, fading and staining with small loss to the wrappers, old tape to spine paper (which has turned a greenish colour), minor wear to odd page edges, some browning to page borders otherwise internally in good condition. The book slightly warped £60/90
- 1044 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1896 and 1899. 33rd & 36th editions. The 1896 with original front paper wrapper, replacement facsimile spine paper and rear wrapper and last advertising page. Some browning to page edges, some wear to front wrapper, name handwritten to top border of front wrapper, small loss to top border of one rear advertising page, some pencil annotation to internal pages otherwise in good condition. The 1899 with replacement facsimile wrappers at front and rear, spine paper and first advertising page, odd minor faults otherwise in good condition. Qty. 2 £40/60
- 1045 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1900 to 1905 and 1909. A run of Wisden's, all in a state of disrepair with some damaged outer pages, loss to spine papers, broken spine blocks, parts becoming loose and detached, all lacking wrappers, with the exception of the 1909 edition which has both wrappers (poor), rear one detached, 1902 edition which has a poor front wrapper and 1904 edition which has a poor rear wrapper. The 1900 edition lacking the last two advertising pages, the 1901 edition appears complete, the 1902 edition lacking the majority of the rear advertising pages, the 1903 edition lacking all advertising pages and some further pages at the rear, the 1904 edition appears complete, the 1905 edition lacking pages at front and back and possibly also internally and the 1909 edition appears complete. A few odd pages loose... Qty. 6. Viewing and checking essential, bought as seen, not subject to return £50/80
- 1046 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1907 and 1915. 44th & 52nd editions. The 1907 edition bound in light brown boards with original rear paper wrapper, titles in gilt to front board and spine paper and in good condition. The 1915 edition bound in similar brown boards with original wrappers, titles in gilt to front board and spine paper. Ink marks to front wrapper otherwise in good condition. Qty. 2 £60/90
- 1047 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1909.

- 46th edition. Bound in red quarter leather, with original wrappers, gilt titles to spine. Some age toning to wrappers, soiling to page block edge otherwise in generally good condition
£50/70
- 1048 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1911 and 1914. 48th & 51st editions. Original paper wrappers. Both with, somewhat, soiled and worn wrappers and spine papers, some darkening and slight loss to spine papers, some breaking to page block, names handwritten to top border of both front wrappers otherwise in good condition. Qty. 2 £60/80
- 1049 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1912. 49th edition. Original paper wrappers. Minor age toning and light wear to wrappers and spine paper otherwise in good + condition
£50/70
- 1050 Wisden Cricketers' Almanack 1920. 57th edition. Original paper wrappers. Some wear and staining with small loss to spine paper, slight bowing to spine, wrappers a little age toned, lacking two advertising pages to rear otherwise in good condition

- 1255 William Wade Fitzherbert Pullen. Gloucestershire 1882-1892. A 36pp foolscap handwritten manuscript of a lecture given by Pullen on cricket in 1890. Born in Gloucestershire Pullen was a contemporary of W.G. Grace with whom he also played for Thornbury, once sharing an opening partnership of 311. The date of the lecture of 1890 can be identified from a reference on p34 to a match against Yorkshire at Dewsbury 'last summer'. There is much on his Gloucestershire and other contemporaries: E.M. Grace the 'master of the pull and supreme fielder at point' and on W.G., 'the supreme cricketer', with whom Pullen played on numerous occasions. He recounts one occasion when W.G. took seven wickets against Nottinghamshire with leg-side half volleys, caught by his brother Fred, 'even Daft fell for it and Notts were all out for 27'. On bowlers Pullen praises the change of pace of Spofforth and Lohmann. Pullen selects his best fielders for the various positions, highlighting Royle, Blackham is his choice for wicket-keeper. There are sections on 'Rustic Cricket' and on the school and university game. Some of the lecture is technical with a drawing of a ball to show movement in the air on page 16. There are two introductory typed pages on Pullen, perhaps compiled by G. Neville Weston whose ownership note is on the inside front cover. Enclosed are a letter from E.K. Brown dated 1968 to Weston stating that he bought the manuscript from Desmond Eagar for 63/- and a typed copy of the Wisden obituary of Pullen. All this has been collated into handsome modern maroon cloth boards with gilt title to spine, with a holderpocket for the loose items. Previously sold by Trevor Vennett-Smith in 2003.
