Crawford' of Edmonton. Jones Bros of Tottenham stamp to corner of verso. Minor wear otherwise in good condition £70/100
- Arthur Grimsdell was signed as a schoolboy player to Tottenham Hotspur at the age of 18 in April 1912. He played his first game that year. His career was interrupted by the First World War. On his return in 1919, he captained Tottenham and scored 14 goals in the 1919-20 season and led the team to win the Second Division that year. In the following season he captained the side, which won the FA Cup in 1921. His successful club career continued until he broke his leg during the 1925 season. He did not return to play for the side until 1927 and he went on to play for Spurs until April 1929 when he was released by the club. He made in total 418 appearances for Tottenham scoring 43 goals including 324 League appearances and 36 F.A Cup matches. In recognition of his distinguished career and service to the club he was admitted the Tottenham Hotspur Hall of Fame*

- Tottenham Hotspur impressed by Jimmy Cantrell's goal scoring paid a substantial sum for his services from Notts County in 1912. In a career interrupted by the First World War, Cantrell lead the Spurs forward line that won the Football League Second Division in 1919-20 with a then record 70 points. He went on to collect a winner's medal in the 1921 FA Cup Final at the age of 38*
- 1286 Charles Wilson. Tottenham Hotspur 1919-1922. Mono real photograph postcard of Wilson, half length, in Spurs shirt. W.J. Crawford of Edmonton 1921. Postally unused. Crease to lower right hand corner, some wear to corners, slight soiling to verso otherwise in good condition £30/50
- After being demobbed Charlie Wilson played six times for Tottenham Hotspur in the 1918-19 season, although for reasons unknown he decided to hide his identity. In four of these games he played under the name of 'C. Williams' and in the other under the pseudonym of 'C. Forshaw'. Only in the sixth did he finally take to the field as Charlie Wilson. With the war over the Football League returned and Wilson scored 11 goals for Spurs in the 1919-20 season helping them claim the Second Division title*
- 1287 James Marshall Seed. Tottenham Hotspur 1920-1927. Sepia real

- photograph postcard of Seed, half length, in Spurs shirt. W.J. Crawford of Edmonton. Postally unused. Good/very good condition £50/70
- After initially playing five games in the reserves Jimmy Seed got his first team chance with Spurs, making his debut at inside right and forming an immediate understanding with the legendary, diminutive right winger Fanny Walden. Seed played five games in the remainder of the 1919–20 season, scoring two goals as Spurs ran away with the Division Two title. Seed was a virtual ever present for Spurs in the following seven seasons in Division One. The 1920–21 season saw Tottenham lift the FA Cup with Seed playing in all six matches in the cup run, scoring five goals including a hat trick against Bradford City in the second round. Just two months after getting his cup winners medal Seed was called up for the first of this five England caps on 21 May 1921 against Belgium*
- 1288 James Henry Dimmock. Tottenham Hotspur 1919-1930. Mono real photograph postcard of Seed, full length, in Spurs attire. Title to lower border 'International Spurs Players. Jimmy Dimmock (outside left). W.J. Crawford of Edmonton. Postally unused. Good/very good condition £50/70
- Jimmy Dimmock holds a unique place in the history of Tottenham Hotspur by being the only player in the club's history to play 400 league games and score 100 league goals. He also remains (at 20 years 139 days) the youngest Tottenham player to appear in an FA Cup Final. Undoubtedly his most memorable season was the 1920–21 season. Jimmy made his international debut against Scotland on 9 April 1921 at the age of 20 years and 125 days to become the youngest Spurs player (at that time) to play for England, and a fortnight later he appeared for Spurs in the FA Cup Final against Wolverhampton Wanderers at Stamford Bridge. Despite sustaining an injury early in the game, he scored the only goal of the game to secure a second FA Cup triumph for Tottenham. Surprisingly, he had to wait five years to gain his 2 further international caps, against Wales and Belgium in 1926.*
- When he was released by Spurs in 1931 he had scored 100 goals in 400 league games*
- 1289 Bertram Smith. Tottenham Hotspur 1919-1930. Mono real photograph postcard of Smith, half length, in Spurs shirt. W.J. Crawford of Edmonton. Title 'B. Smith' to lower border. Good/very good condition Postally unused. £50/80

- Billy Lane joined Tottenham Hotspur in 1922 for the first time but left the club without appearing in a senior match. He went on to play for Summerstown and Barnet before re-joining Tottenham after a spell with the club's "nursery" team Northfleet United. Lane, a centre forward, went on to feature in 36 matches and found the net on 12 occasions between 1924 and 1926. Lane's time with Spurs came to an end after manager Peter McWilliam dropped him after Lane kicked the ball into the crowd after having a goal disallowed in a match versus Preston North End. Lane had been courting the attention of the England selectors at the time, who were present at the match, but unimpressed with his behaviour. The incident ended Lane's chances of an international call-up and his Tottenham career. He went on to play for both Brentford and Watford scoring 150 goals in 236 appearances for the two clubs between 1929-1936*

- It has been suggested to the auctioneer that these postcards may well have been originally printed with these imperfections to the image.*
- Rowe was born in Tottenham and began his career at Tottenham Hotspur's nursery club Northfleet United as an amateur in 1923, before becoming a professional with Spurs in 1929. He was a Tottenham player for eight seasons, after making his debut in 1931, in which time he played 201 games, in all competitions, and earned his single cap for the England team. Tottenham were in the second division when Rowe returned to the club as manager in 1949 and his task was to gain promotion. This was achieved by becoming Champions and the following season the First Division Championship was won as well. These back-to-back championships made Spurs the first post-war team to win back-to-back titles. This was achieved through the use of 'Push and run' football. Rowe was forced to resign as Tottenham manager in 1955 due to health issues.*
- 1314 Walter John Alsford. Tottenham Hotspur 1930-1936. Mono real photograph postcard of Alsford, half length, in Spurs shirt. 'W.J. Crawford of Edmonton'. Blemishes and imperfections to the face of the postcard otherwise in good condition. Postally unused £30/50

- It has been suggested to the auctioneer that these postcards may well have been originally printed with these imperfections to the image.*
- Alf Day signed for Tottenham Hotspur as a trainee, being 'farmed out' to the Spurs' nursery team Northfleet United. In November 1933, Day made his only international appearance for Wales. The Football Association of Wales secretary, Ted Robbins, rang the secretary at Spurs, Arthur Turner,*
- to enquire if he knew anyone who could help out the depleted Welsh team. Turner mentioned that he had a promising reserve half-back who he believed was Welsh, leading to Day being capped before having appeared in League football. Shortly afterwards, Day made his debut for the Spurs' first-team, going on to make 14 appearances in all competitions. The form of fellow-Welshman Tom Evans at right half prevented Day from becoming a regular in the Spurs' side, with nine of his League appearances coming in the 1934-35 season at the end of which Spurs were relegated from Division One. Despite his limited first-team appearances, Day made 139 appearances in the reserves in London Combination matches*
